Our Adventures

This week the children have been learning about different types of families and celebrating what makes each one special. Thank you so much for sharing your family photos with us. The children loved showing them to the rest of their classes and enjoyed drawing pictures of their own families. We also began My Happy Mind sessions, where we met our brain and started learning how to look after our ourselves. Also, in our SCARF lesson, we explored what makes us special and drew our favourite things.

Literacy

This week we have been carrying on with our wordless book 'Quest'. The children have really enjoyed this story and have been thinking about different feelings of the children in the story and what they might be saying. The children have also been creating their own maps just like in the story and labelling these with sounds they remembered from their phonics lessons.

Phonics

This week the children have been learning to subitise amounts up to 3. They have been practicing number formation and recognition up to 5.
