Book of the week— The Three Little Pigs

Words of the week— warning, determined, last, growling

Rhyme of the week— Ring O Ring O Roses

Our Adventures

This week we have been learning all about King Charles. The children have learnt some fun facts about the king and we celebrated his birthday by making party hats and writing birthday cards. The children also designed and made their own crown for his coronation.

Sid the Snail

Sid is ready for some weekend adventures!

If you would like to look after him for a weekend at your house, please let us know.

Looking after him will include giving him food and keeping his tank damp by spraying it with water.

Literacy

This week the children have been investigating the wolf from the story 'The Three Little Pigs'. They have written a 'watch out!' poster focusing on writing a simple caption. We also labelled items for the Three Little Pigs suitcase.

Maths

This week, the children have built on their understanding of the composition of numbers by investigating the composition of 3, 4 and 5. Composing and decomposing numbers involves the children investigating part-part-whole relations. The children have looked at day and night this week. We looked at different activities that are done in a day and decided whether it was done in the daytime or at night.

We are very excited about our trip on Thursday to Threapwood, please can you make sure your child has wellies in school for this, Thank you.
