

What have we been learning this week?

Week beginning 2/2/26

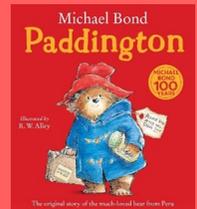

This week we visited the school kitchen to learn about kitchen safety and things we should and should not do to stay safe. We went on a trip to the trim trail and had lots of fun making heart collages for people we love.

Book of the week: Kitchen Disco
Rhyme of the week: Five fat Sausages
Word of the week— Long

Literacy

We have re-read Paddington, we looked at different stories about Paddington and learnt he used to look very different.

Math's

For math's this week we have been making five sausages and taking one away. We have also been measuring what is long and counting footsteps to measure distances.

Next Week

We will be learning about shrove Tuesday and making pancakes. We will join reception children to learn about Chinese New Year and taste different Chinese foods. We will learn about the zodiac animals and hear the story about the race.

Book of the week: NSPCC Pants
Rhyme of the week: Here we go round the mulberry bush

School closes Friday 16th February for spring half term break; returning 26th February.
