

What have we been learning this week?

Autumn 1—Week beginning 5/10/26

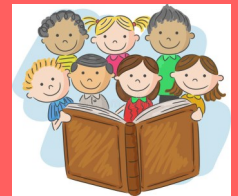

We have had a busy bakers week with a focus on colour mixing cupcakes in the art area, making our own cake and making playdough cakes. We have been on a visit to see Mr. Huxley at our local bakery and we took our shopping lists we had been writing. We have been rolling conkers to make webs for Walter and we enjoyed making Walter's magic wands in the garden.

Literacy

We have been reading the gingerbread man. This week we asked the children; should we trust the fox? What is he planning?

Math's

We have been learning about patterns this week and have been sequencing colour, conkers and leaves. We have been counting to three and have been weighing and counting ingredients when baking.

Next Week

Next week are going to bake our own gingerbread men and compare them to the ones we had from the bakers shop. We are going to make musical shakers and perform a show. We are going to sequence events of a story; first, then after. We will be visiting the main hall for exercise and will go on the trim trail.
