

Spectacula Starter

We will start our study theme by planning a party for Fred Frog's birthday.

Personal, Social and Emotional

Development: We will make new friends and develop positive relationships, taking turns and being aware of others feelings. We will learn about our feelings and how to deal with them. We will learn about Democracy through being fair.

Communication and Language:

We will learn new poems and recite them in class and to our wider Warmingham family from our poetry basket.

Computing:

We will use the interactive whiteboard to draw a variety of celebrations We will use the walkie talkies to talk to our friends in the classroom.

For our RSHE:

British Values:

Individual Liberty

Articles: 7, 12, 13, 15

No Outsiders enhanced with P4C

Literacy: As readers, we will continue to learn how to read and write through phonics lessons, focusing on set 1 sounds and learn to blend these sounds into words. As writers, we will be using our sounds to write simple words and labels and to create cards and invitations.

Understanding of the World: As historians, we will reflect on Remembrance Sunday and begin to understand why some people do this. As scientists, we will look at the change of seasons and what happens to some plants and animals during Winter. As geographers, we will learn about celebrations around the world.

Religious Education: As theologists, we will be looking at how Christians Celebrate Jesus' birthday?

Maths: As mathematicians, we will continue our learning using the Numberblocks as we focus on numbers to 5 to developing a deep understanding of each number and its composition.

Expressive Art and Design:

As musicians, we will move in time to music and tap out a simple rhythm. As artists, we will create our own representations of bonfire night using magic paper. As design technologists, we will understand the celebration of Diwali and create our own Diya lamps from clay.

Physical Development:

We will learn how to negotiate space safely in the outdoor area and move around objects. We will begin to be aware of others whilst we are running. We will take part in Doh disco to develop our gross motor movements in preparation for writing.

Fantastic Finish

Holding a party for Fred Frog.
