News of the Week....

In the news this week

Scientists are monitoring a climate trend called El Niño, which begins in the Pacific Ocean and can affect weather in different parts of the world. It can bring heavy rain and flooding to some countries, while others may experience very hot, dry weather. Experts are helping communities understand what might happen in their area so they can be ready, if needed.

Things to talk about at home ...

- > What is your favourite type of weather and why?
- > Have you or anyone at home ever had to change your plans because of the weather?
- > What would you pack if you didn't know whether it would be rainy or sunny?
- > Why might some people need to prepare more carefully for certain types of weather?

Young Carers Silver Award

Last week Mrs Forsyth and I were delighted to attend a presentation at Eaton Hall to receive our Young Carers Silver Award. This was an immensely proud moment for our school and a wonderful recognition of our commitment to supporting our young carers.

This achievement reflects the dedication and care shown across our school community in ensuring that young carers feel valued, understood and supported. A huge thank you to Mrs Forsyth for leading this project with such passion and commitment. Through her hard work and determination, she has helped to transform the experiences of our young carers, creating opportunities for them to thrive both in school and beyond.

Year 4 Residential

Hot off the press...our Year Four children arrived back from their residential visit to Ironbridge yesterday after an immensely successful few days. The children stayed at Ironbridge for two nights where they learnt about several of the World Heritage Sites within the area. They enjoyed learning about the Iron works in Coalbrookdale, we got creative at the Jackfield Tile Museum where we created our own tiles and we also enthusiastically dressed up as Victorian children before attending the Victorian School room at Blist Hill.

The children were fascinated by the way of life they witnessed at the end of the Victorian era. We have to say a huge well done to our Year Four children who represented school so well, with such positivity and eagerness. Amongst so many personal and social skills, the children demonstrated independence, resilience and team work, all skills we look to develop on our residential experiences. We are so very proud of each and every one. Huge thanks also go to the staff, both for their support in planning the visit and their time and effort in supporting the children and ensuring they have had such a memorable time.
