| Knowledge Organiser RE | Is it better to express your religion in arts and architecture or in charity and generosity? | Year Group 6 |
|---|---|---|

Vocabulary

Opinion – a point of view based on previous knowledge.

Architecture – how buildings are designed

Charity – organisations that help people who are in need.

Generosity – giving up something for someone else. This could be money or time to help others.

Values – what is important to yourself, it is like a belief something that helps you live your life in the right way.

Connections – how ideas are linked

What we will learn

To express an opinion on sacred and special places.

Why Mosques matter to Muslims.

Why religious buildings matter to Christians.

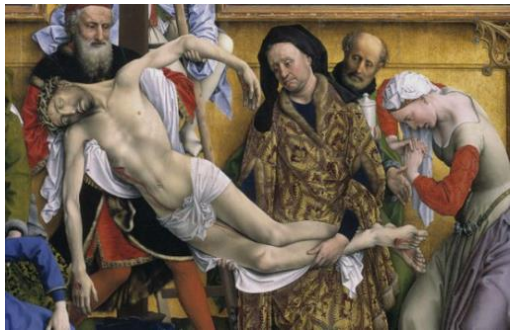

Why some people think religious art is important

How religious organisations show charity.

How to give an opinion based on what we have learned.

Key Knowledge (including facts)

Examples of religious art.

Examples of religious architecture.

What else can you do?

Visit an alternative religious building

Give up some of your time to help someone who needs help.