Headteacher's Notes

Dear parents and carers,

As I write today's newsletter, our school is buzzing with excitement. In true Robins Lane fashion, the children and staff have fully embraced Times Tables Rock Stars Dress-Up Day to celebrate NSPCC Number Day. From number-themed outfits to full rockstar glamour, the commitment to the day has been truly remarkable. The children have had opportunities throughout the day to engage in number games and have raised awareness for an incredibly important charity which works tirelessly to fight for children and young people's rights and to keep our children and families safe. A huge thank you to Mr Cox for organising the event and giving us the opportunity to celebrate maths in such a creative and engaging way. Thank you also to our parents and carers for embracing the day, it simply wouldn't happen without your hard work behind the scenes.

This week, some of our Year 5 and Year 6 children took part in a football competition. They represented Robins Lane brilliantly, showing determination, teamwork, and respect throughout the event. Their sportsmanship and positive attitude made them fantastic role models for our school community. We are incredibly proud of their achievement, finishing 4th place out of 15 schools. This is a result that reflects their hard work and commitment!

This week we completed a pupil voice activity with the children to gather their views on our Happy Lunchtime provision. We received some brilliant feedback about what is working well, along with fantastic ideas for how we can continue to improve. The children spoke confidently and thoughtfully, and we can't wait to share their ideas with you all.

Earlier this week we shared details about the upcoming February half-term offer from the Family Hub and Children's Centre, and you can still find the link on Class Dojo or our Facebook page. As a reminder, there's a full timetable of free, fully inclusive activities running throughout the week.

A gentle reminder that this week, letters for next half-term's clubs have now been sent out. Please check bags and emails so you don't miss any information. Our teachers are looking forward to providing another half-term of fun after school activities.

Please do take a moment to visit our Facebook page, where we love sharing the everyday magic of Robins Lane life. It's a wonderful window into the teaching, learning, and joyful moments happening across our school community. You'll also find photos of our incredible rock stars and a lovely snapshot of the activities and achievements from this week.

I would like to wish everyone a wonderful weekend, and I hope you get to enjoy some well-earned downtime before we head into the final week of this half term.

Yours sincerely,
Mrs McKeon
