Queen's Park Post Friday 23rd October
2026

Our value this term is thankfulness. 'Always be thankful' Thessalonians 5:16

Message from Miss Bolan

Wow! What a week it has been at Queen's Park!

We had an unexpected visit from Ofsted this week. We weren't expecting inspectors until Spring 2027, so it was a real surprise. Three inspectors spent Tuesday and Wednesday with us and one of them told us, "Your children did you proud."

I am always proud of the children at Queen's Park, so it was just gorgeous to hear someone else say it too. The report will be available for parents some time after the half term break.

None of this would be possible without our wonderful, committed and dedicated staff. They work tirelessly for our school and our community and I am very grateful for everything they do. I feel very fortunate to do this job every day with our fabulous community and this week reminded me exactly why.

Our Year 6 children headed off on their PGL trip and what a wonderful time was had by all. Their behaviour was impeccable. They showed great teamwork, determination and resilience and so many wonderful memories were made. I know those children will be talking about their trip for a long time.

Thursday was our Autumn parents' evening. I hope you enjoyed finding out how your child has settled in, the progress they are making, and seeing their maths and English books. It is always a pleasure to share your child's learning with you.

I also need to share some important notices:

Earrings: We have noticed that many children are wearing earrings. Earrings are not part of our school uniform, so please could you check that your child is not wearing them to school. Thank you for your support with this.

Autumn 2: We reopen on Tuesday 3rd November.

Communication: Dojo messages are not monitored. Please make contact with the school through the Arbor app instead.

Thank you, as always, for your continued support. It means a great deal to everyone at Queen's Park.

Miss J. Bolan

Parking

We have had more complaints from residents about our parents parking irresponsibly across their driveways. I appreciate that mornings are busy and you want to drop and go however, please consider how you would feel if you were unable to leave your home because someone had parked across your driveway. We are so fortunate to have a huge car park that we can use. Please consider others when you are parking.

Breakfast Club

Breakfast club is a real hit! We are getting up to 80 children coming through to have breakfast for free with us. Just a few reminders

1. Breakfast club opens at 8:15am.
2. Please don't send your child in with snacks as these will be removed from your child and they will be offered an alternative.
3. Squishys are not allowed in breakfast club. Please leave these at home.

Free Breakfasts at Morrisons

Free Breakfasts at Morrisons

Breakfast Clubs are back to help kids and grown-ups enjoy a free Kellogg's breakfast during October half term at all Morrisons Cafes nationwide.

Families visiting their local Morrisons Cafe throughout October half term holidays can enjoy a free breakfast which includes a bowl of cereal and a portion of fruit. The best part, it's not just for kids, adults get to eat completely free too!.

Both kids and adults can choose from much loved Cornflakes or Rice Krispies, topped with their choice of dairy or non dairy milk and a free apple or banana. The October holiday offer is available up to 1st November across all Morrisons cafes nationwide.

The Queen's Park Way

At Queen's Park, we believe that children thrive when expectations are clear, consistent and understood by everyone.

The Queen's Park Way is our shared approach to behaviour and relationships. It provides a consistent set of expectations and shared language that is known and understood by all children and staff across our school.

This means that, wherever children are in school and whoever they are working with, they know what is expected of them and what they can expect from the adults around them.

The Queen's Park Way helps us to:

- Set clear and consistent expectations for behaviour.

- Use the same language when talking to children about choices, behaviour and relationships.
- Recognise and celebrate positive behaviour and children who demonstrate our school values.
- Respond consistently and fairly when expectations are not met.
- Help children to understand why expectations matter and take responsibility for their choices.
- Create a school environment that is calm, safe, respectful and purposeful.

Consistency does not mean treating every child exactly the same. We recognise that children have different needs and may require different support or reasonable adjustments. However, the expectations remain clear and the approach is understood by everyone.

The Queen's Park Way is about creating a strong sense of belonging, respect and shared responsibility. When children, staff and families understand and reinforce the same expectations, we create the conditions for every child to feel safe, valued and ready to learn.

Half Term Holiday Fun Club

Rotary St Helens Heritage Trail

Looking for a way to keep the kids entertained this October school holidays? Take them on the Rotary St Helens Heritage Trail to meet four lovable cartoon characters—Heri, Tage, Archi, and Ves—who are specially created to guide primary school-aged children on an exciting adventure discovering how a modest market town became a global leader in industry, innovation, and culture. Best of all, it is completely free; all you need is your children and a mobile phone. Simply use your phone's camera to scan the QR codes on the Heritage Trail plaques located at each site on the map, click the resulting link, and watch Heri, Tage, Archi, and Ves spring to life. By the time you have scanned every plaque, your children will be amazed—and perhaps a little proud—to call St Helens home. So, grab your phone, follow the trail, and let these holidays become a family pilgrimage through the heart of a community that has always been, and continues to be, a world-class leader.

Phonics Links

We have created this document so that all of the phonics links we send home are in one place. You could watch one video, two videos or even 3 videos a week! It's completely up to you.

Watch, watch and watch again - each one of the links will be a fantastic chance to practise recognising sounds and reading words, both real and alien. Don't forget to comment in your child's reading record book which video they have watched, it all counts towards their weekly reads.

Green Tip of the Week

SEND in the Spotlight

There are three types of activity that can be used to help sensitive children and young people. These activities can help them regulate their senses. The activities can be used in any kind of environment.

Alerting - helps children with low energy

Organising - helps children to focus on a task

Calming - helps children with high energy

You can use these types of activities individually or as part of a circuit. Circuits can be used at home or in school. The circuit can be used to help establish, restore or maintain your child's ability to self-regulate their nervous system.

ALERTING

1 ALERTING ACTIVITIES

The aim of the alerting activities is to provide vestibular and proprioceptive stimulation within a controlled setting. This prepares the brain for learning.

VESTIBULAR

Vestibular input is the sense of movement, centred in the inner ear. Any type of movement will stimulate the vestibular receptors, but spinning, swinging, and hanging upside down provide the most intense, longest lasting input.

EXAMPLES OF ALERTING ACTIVITIES

- Bouncing 10 times on a mini trampoline / trampette
- Bouncing 10 times on a space hopper.
- Going on a scooter / scooter board
- Jumping on the spot / jumping jacks
- Running / shuttle runs
- Rolling forward and back over a peanut ball
- Bouncing up and down while sitting on a peanut ball

ORGANISING

2 ORGANISING ACTIVITIES

This section includes activities that require motor sensory processing, balance and timing. The child needs to organise their body, plan their approach and do more than one thing at a time in a sequential order.

EXAMPLES OF ORGANISING ACTIVITIES

- Balancing on a beam
- Log rolling
- Climbing wall bars
- Throwing bean bags into a target
- Arm push ups against the wall
- Blowing bubbles or blowing a paper ball to a target
- Wobble boards for balance work

★ These are skills that may increase a child's focus, attention span and performance within the classroom.

CALMING

3 CALMING ACTIVITIES

Finishing the circuit with calming activities ensures that the child leaves the circuit (or returns to the classroom) feeling calm, centred and as ready for the day as possible.

EXAMPLES OF CALMING ACTIVITIES

- Deep pressure (e.g. bean bag squeeze)
- Stretching
- Animal walks (bear crawl, crab walk, etc.)
- Quiet balance (e.g. standing like a tree)
- Deep breathing (ex. balloon breathing)
- Listening to calming music / mindfulness

♥ These activities help the body and mind return to a calm, ready state for learning.
