

Mrs Madden's Class News

Friday 12th December 2025

There's only one way I can start this week's newsletter.... A huge, massive well done to the children who performed 'Away in a Manger' so beautifully. We are so incredibly proud of you – you're all amazing!

Also, we've read LOTS of Christmas stories and sung a variety of songs Christmas rhymes.

We've been creative making our Christmas cards, decorated the Christmas trees with stickers and had fun with the sparkly pompoms!

We're very much looking forward to our visit to the pantomime to see 'Alice in Wonderland' next week Oh yes, we are!

Have a wonderful weekend.

Mrs Madden 😊
