

Year 1: The Secret of Black Rock

Grammar

noun	they name people, place and things conjunctions	words used to extend sentences when, if, that, but because, and adjective	a word that can be used before a noun, for example - some really good work, or after a verb, for example - their work was good noun phrase	a group of words to describe - a blue butterfly or the man in the moon prefix	added to the beginning of a word to create a new word - for example kind - unkind, happy - unhappy verb	a word to describe an action or tells us something is happening question	a sentence that asks you something and ends with a question mark - ?

Vocabulary

glimpse	to see briefly or partially mysterious	difficult or impossible to understand, identify or explain outsmart	defeat or get the better of someone by being clever or cunning translucent	allowing light but not the whole detail to pass through scrapes	to drag or pull a hard or sharp instrument across a surface shore	the land along the edge or the sea or lake unnoticed	not noticed echoed	a sound that is repeated jetty	a landing stage or small pier that small boat can dock from luscious	a pleasantly, rich sweet taste turquoise	A greenish-blue colour lapping	to overtake or to become one or more laps ahead

Focus Writing

A return story	A return story is a form of a narrative in which the children use similar planning and write their own version of a return story.
A post card	A post card is a card for sending a message by post with an envelope.