What would Jesus do?

The salt and the light	Blessed are the peacemakers	Love another	Sell everything you have
Jesus tells people about being the salt, like salt is used to effect taste so be like salt and influence them to be good Christians. Light means to be more aware.	Jesus encourages people to work towards keeping the peace, people who keep the peace will be blessed or happy in their life.	Jesus tells people to love each other like he loves them. If people do then that then everyone will know they are his disciples.	Jesus tells people to give away everything they have, material things are not important we will be rewarded in Heaven.
