Why choose Music for Life?

Music for Life is an award-winning, not-for-profit organisation dedicated to providing children with something truly special. For over 30 years, our team of 100+ inspiring tutors has brought music to life in over 130 schools every week, teaching more than 4,000 children, from first-time beginners to some of the UK's most exciting young musicians! Music for Life is proud to help children discover the joy and power of music.

Learning an instrument opens doors for students of all ages: building confidence, creativity, and a lifelong passion. The benefits go far beyond music as well: improved social skills, language development, coordination, and emotional wellbeing are all additional benefits.

Music changes lives.

We're here to help children experience just how amazing that can be.

Instrumental lessons during the school day

Instrumental lessons take place during the school day, convenient for parents and meaning students become part of a wider community of young musicians in school, avoiding the isolation that can be felt when learning at home. Thousands of students take part in our extra curricular activities - workshop days, concerts and ensembles, with many taking exams. All tutors are DBS checked, and to work with Music for Life, tutors must be first class musicians and are required to meet professional performance standards.

Instruments offered

Lessons may be available on guitar, piano, keyboard and violin (usually suitable for Year 2 or above) cello, clarinet, saxophone, flute, cornet, trombone, trumpet and euphonium (usually suitable for Year 4 or above) bass guitar, drums and singing. If we are unable to provide lessons on your first choice, we will contact you with the possibility of offering lessons on a second choice if you specify one.

Course Fees

Specialist teaching of a musical instrument falls outside the National Curriculum, so there is a charge for lessons. This varies as some schools provide a subsidy, but up to date details of course fees for your school appear on our booking form. Music for Life offers the facility to set up a monthly subscription which makes paying for music lessons so much easier. Support with fees may be available, so please get in touch with your school for details if you are in receipt of Income Support.
