

The Titanic

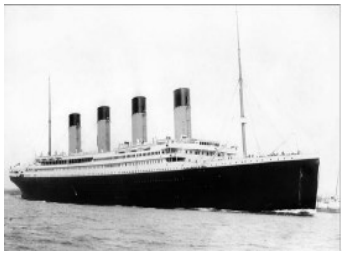

Timeline

1909	10th April 1912	10th April 1912	11th April 1912	14th April 1912	15th April 1912	15th April 1912	18th April 1912
The Titanic is built in Belfast (N. Ireland)	The Titanic sets off from Southampton.	The Titanic reaches Cherbourg (France) and collects more passengers.	The ship reaches Queenstown (Ireland)	The ship hits an iceberg on the starboard side of her bow.	After 4m of water enters the front of the ship, the captain radios for help.	The Titanic sinks at 2:20am in the darkness of the Atlantic Ocean.	The Carpathia steamship rescues 705 passengers and returns to New York.

Bow	The front part of the hull of a ship or boat
Collision	One moving object or person striking violently against another
Crow's nest	A structure in the upper part of a ship used as a lookout
Distress Signal	A signal from a ship or aircraft that is in danger
Funnel	Chimney on a ship used to get rid of boiler steam and smoke
Hull	Main body of a ship including the bottom, sides and deck
Lifeboats	Small boats kept on a ship for use in emergency
Shipwreck	Remains of a ship found on land or at the bottom of the sea
Social class	Dividing a society based on economic and social status.

The Titanic was built from 1909 to 1912 by the Harland and Wolff shipyard in Belfast, Ireland. She cost £1.5 million (£170 million in 2021) to build.

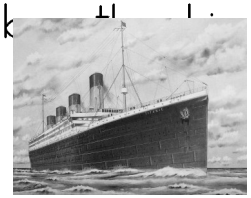

Social class on the RMS Titanic mirrored the rigid Edwardian class structure of 1912, dividing passengers into First, Second, and Third Class (steerage), which [illegible] their accommodations, treatment, and survival rates.

The RMS Titanic's maiden voyage in April 1912 followed a trans-Atlantic route from the United Kingdom and [illegible] States.

The Titanic's buoyancy was engineered around a groundbreaking system of 16 watertight compartments designed to k[illegible] afloat even if multiple sections flooded

The RMS Titanic sank in the North Atlantic Ocean on April 15, [illegible] striking an iceberg during [illegible] voyage.

Effective displays must catch the eye, flow logically, and tell a clear sto[illegible] setting up a museum exhibit[illegible] the goal is to guide the

