

Orange Class

On Tuesday, some of our older peers had the very exciting opportunity to go and see the Women's Rugby World Cup, won by England in September.

We took part in a range of rugby activities, before playing games of tag rugby against 3 other schools.

We were commended for our teamwork and fantastic sportsmanship throughout the games.

We left the event feeling very inspired and excited to play more rugby in school.

We might have some future Red Roses on our hands!

Playleaders

This week, we have launched our new lunchtime provision.

Our fantastic playleaders have been leading some brilliant games for our KS1 children, whilst our KS2 children have enjoyed playing a variety of sports throughout the week.

The children have been responsible for looking after our new equipment and have shown brilliant teamwork. Well done, pears!

let's play

WORLD BOOK DAY

Thursday 5th March

At Pear Tree, we are celebrating World Book Day by 'Going All In' with one of our school values- Aspiration! Inspired by the people depicted in the, 'Little People, Big Dreams' series on Thursday 5th March, pupils can dress:

- Thinking ahead of a future career
- Someone they look up to/aspire to be like.
- Bring something symbolic (a hat, tool, badge, notebook) representing a job they dream about.

We are looking forward to seeing who inspires our Pears!

The Haiku Competition

As part of the festival of creativity, Poetry Whitchurch are delighted to host the inaugural Caldecott haiku competition.

Competition theme

The theme for the competition this year is simply "countryside". Haikus on that subject (only) will be eligible for submission and consideration.

Categories

There will be two categories:

- under 18s (as of 21 March 2026) and;
- adult.

There will be a £50 prize for the winner of each category.

Submission details

- Submissions are free of charge
- Submissions must be from UK residents
- Each poet can submit a maximum of two poems
- Submission poems must not have been published previously or be under current consideration for other poetry prizes.
- Poems should be submitted by email to: poetrywhitchurch@hotmail.com by 5pm on 1 March 2026.
- The poem must be attached in a Word or PDF format. This attachment must contain the poem only (no other details of the author, or any other details, should be included in the attachment).
- The covering email should contain the author's name, address and date of birth.

Judging

- The competition will be judged by Siân Hughes, winner of the Seamus Heaney Award, the Arvon International Poetry prize.
- Siân's poetry collection The Missing was longlisted for the Guardian First Book Award and shortlisted for the Aldeburgh and Felix Dennis awards. Her poem Secret Lives from this collection won the TLS/Poems on the Underground competition. Siân's novel Pearl was longlisted for the 2003 Booker Prize.
- The poems will be "judged blind" (i.e. the judge will see the poem only, by category, without details of the author).
- The winning poem will be announced at the Caldecott festival in Whitchurch on 21 March. The winning poets will be invited to attend the ceremony.
 - The judge's decision will be final

About the Haiku

- A haiku is a traditional form of short poetry of Japanese origin. Whilst there are many variations, Haiku are synonymous with the idea of capturing a single moment in verse. They follow a 3 line stanza format, with 5 syllables in the first line, 7 in the second line, and 5 in the third line. This is the interpretation that we will use in judging the poems.
