No Outsiders

What is No Outsiders?

Our Vision: Inclusive education, promoting community cohesion to prepare young people and adults for life as global citizens.

Dogs don't do ballet by A. Kemp and S. Ogilvie	King and King by L.de Hann and S. Nijland	The Way back home by Oliver Jeffers	The Flower by John Light	Red: A crayon's story by Michael Hall

Self-Confidence	Relationships	Race	Choices	Self-Confidence
To know when to be assertive	To understand why people choose to get married	To overcome language as a barrier	To ask questions	To be who you want to be

Snacks

Thank you for sending in healthy snacks.

Unfortunately, fruit is not provided by the school in KS2 as this is a KS1 initiative from the Government.

Thank you for sending in water bottles. Separate juice bottles can be brought in for lunchtime.

Homework

Reading- Please ask children to read at least 4x per week. Reading records will be collected on Fridays. We have reading rockets in Elm Class where the class are working towards prizes.

Maths/ English homework is no longer given out every week though may be given out sporadically to cover relevant areas of need.

TTRS is ongoing and we encourage daily practise.

Spelling homework will be given out on Friday. These do not need to be handed in though there is a spelling test every Monday.

Reward Systems

- Class Dojo
- Mathematician/Writer/Reader/Star of the week/ Achiever /Values/ Handwriter/ Super Scientist
- Attendance awards
- Golden time
- Extra breaks
- Reading golden tickets
- Reading rockets
