Speaking to Teachers

We know there may be times when you would like to speak with your child's teacher before school. To help keep mornings calm and focused for the children, we kindly ask that you pop into the school office first. Our office team will be happy to pass on a message or arrange for someone to speak with you as soon as possible.

This way, teachers can give their full attention to settling the children in and getting the day off to a positive start. Thank you so much for your understanding and support with this.
