

Summer 2

Communication and Language

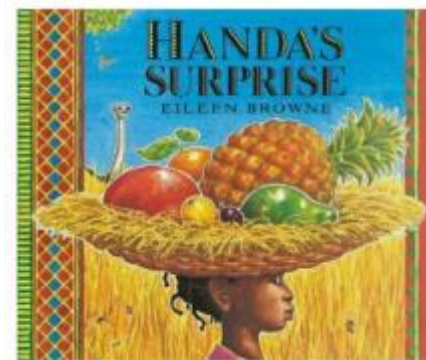

- I will listen to the story 'Handa's Surprise' and talk about new vocabulary.
- I will learn new concept words and apply them in my play
- I will talk about the different emotions in the story 'Handa's Surprise'.
- I will learn a new word aware word and apply it in my play.
- I will follow a simple instruction action card. · I will focus my listening and attention skills to listen to the story.
- I will listen to the stories 'Walking through the jungle' and 'Elmer' and talk about new vocabulary
- I will listen to a simple description and match it to the correct jungle animal.
- I will listen to a two-part instruction to move around different objects.

June to July 2026

Nursery in The Owl Class, St Oswald's Worleston

Literacy

- I will listen to a story known story and create my own story book.
- I will explore words using magnetic letters.
- I will begin to form m a s d t using RWInc rhymes.
- I will create my own narrative.
- I will use my robot arms and blending hands to segment and blend CVC words.
- I will begin to hear the initial sound in a word, find it on a sound mat and write the initial sounds of simple words.

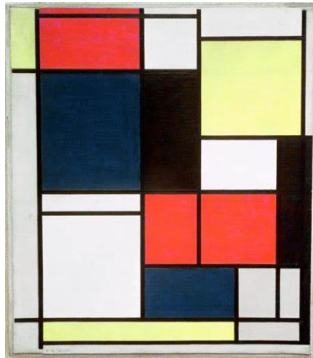

Maths

- I will order numbers 1-5
- I will understand the composition of 1-5
- I will subitise numbers 1-5
- I will identify what comes before a given number
- I will identify what comes after a given number
- I will consolidate names of taught 3D shapes
- I will consolidate names of taught 2D shapes

Summer 2

Personal, Social, Emotional Development

- I will play Duck Duck Goose with my peers and teachers.
- I will visit a place of worship.
- I will play crocodile dentist with my friends.
- I will talk about how others might be feeling.
-

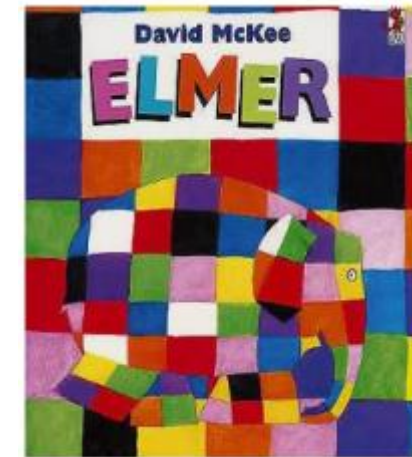

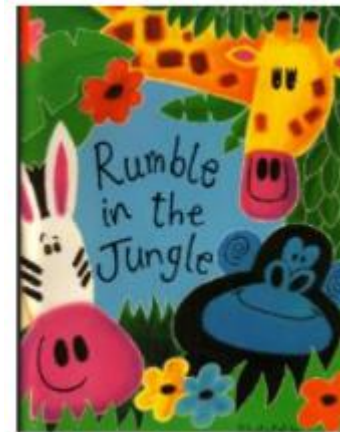

Expressive Arts and Design

- I will create my own story using language from a known story..
- I will listen to music and express my feelings in my artwork.
- I will use techniques like Kandinsky to create my own artwork.
- I will explore a range of different musical instrument and create my own piece of music

Physical Development

- I will write my name independently holding my mark making tool correctly.
- I will put my coat on independently and zip it up.
- I will explore different climbing equipment.
- I will put my shoes on independently.
- I will explore different ways to move around a simple circuit.
- I will copy different graphemes, holding my mark making tools correctly.

Understanding the World

- I will explore items that are magnetic and not magnetic. I can make predictions and learn new vocabulary.
- I will read stories and sing songs about diversity.
- I will learn about changing materials by adding water and mixing it.
- I will talk about how I will celebrate Father's Day.
- I will talk about what happens to juice and water when it becomes frozen.
- I will investigate which material keeps teddy dry and is waterproof.
- I will see and talk about the seasonal changes in my local environment.

June to July 2026

Nursery in The Owl Class, St Oswald's Worleston