HEADTEACHER AWARDS

Nursery Billie Roberts

Billie is showing all of the school's values at such an early age. She is very respectful to all the teachers and her friends. She does the most amazing listening and joins in with the nursery activities and asks some great questions, showing how inquisitive she is. She is super independent and very co-operative as she is the most fantastic tidy upper! She has shown great resilience and confidence in our Nativity performance and above all she is such a kind and lovely little girl to her friends. It is an honour having you in our nursery Billie.

RBW Lottie Talbot

Lottie has had a fantastic start to reception. She is an absolute delight to have in the classroom and is such a wonderful role model for others. She is always on hand to help and is such an encouraging and supportive friend to everyone as well as always trying her best at everything she is asked to do. You are a superstar Lottie, well done.

RLE Grayson McGrail

Grayson has had an absolutely brilliant first term at Broadstone Hall and we could not be prouder of him! He has come into our classroom every single day with a sunny smile and an amazing attitude to school life. He is keen to learn, kind to his friends and tries his very best in all areas. He has worked extremely hard but especially in his reading where we have seen fantastic progress already. To add to all of this... his manners and behaviour are impeccable. Grayson, you are the perfect role model and we all feel very proud of you and so lucky to have you in our class. Well done super star!

RAF Jenny Lande-Sudall

Jenny is always an outstanding student; she works so incredibly hard in everything she does and is an exceptional role model in the classroom.

1CR Eva Burns

Eva consistently demonstrates all the core values of our school. Her confidence to share her answers and ideas with the class has improved greatly and she always listens attentively to others. When tasks become difficult, she demonstrates resilience and remains positive, knowing when and how to ask for help. Eva is extremely co-operative and works exceptionally well with other children during partner and group activities. Eva shows her kindness every day, she offers to help other children, shows empathy towards others and treats both adults and children with respect. Well done on an exceptional term!

1CL Daisy Parsons

Daisy is a wonderful member of 1CL. She is kind, caring and an excellent role model to all in class! She has a great attitude to learning and always tries her best. Daisy perfectly demonstrates our school CRICK values and is always ready to learn. It has been lovely to see Daisy grow in confidence as she is now always sharing her great ideas. We are so proud of Daisy and all she has achieved so far!

1-2DS Cruz Cameron

Cruz has blown us away this term and should be so proud of himself! Cruz comes to school every day ready to learn with a role model attitude. He has worked hard and shown so much resilience with his learning; he has made excellent progress - particularly during reading sessions. Cruz is a fantastic friend to others and a kind and caring member of our class. Well done Cruz!

2SH Jacob Walter

Jacob is a kind and caring boy who has had a super first term in year 2. He consistently shows all of our school CRICK values, both in the classroom and on the playground, and is a fantastic role model to those around him. He is a great shoulder partner and always contributes thoughtfully in lessons. Jacob has lovely manners and comes into school each day with a smile on his face, ready to do his absolute best. Well done, Jacob – you are a star!

2MK Oliver Walter

Oliver is kind and helpful and always tries hard in all lessons, never giving up. He is a role model who follows all the school rules and shows a great attitude every day. Oliver is a good friend to others, caring and respectful and he makes people feel included. He is a super member of 2MK, a positive role model, and simply just lovely to have in class. He consistently sets an example through effort, kindness, and responsibility. Well done, Oliver!

3EE Arshmaan Abdullah

Arshmaan is a delightful young man and a pleasure to teach. It has been a privilege to see his confidence grow in this first term of year 3. He has shown great resilience when tackling new challenges and is demonstrating a growing sense of independence and determination. Arshmaan has a cheeky sense of humour but never at the expense of others, he is always respectful and kind which makes him a good friend and a valued member of 3EE

3LW Sulaiman Akram

Sulaiman consistently does exactly what is expected of him and is a fantastic role model to everyone in the class, always demonstrating our CRICK values in everything he does. He is always kind, polite and extremely helpful, showing excellent manners and consideration for others at all times. He is a good friend to his peers, offering support and encouragement and always including others, which reflects his respect and kindness towards others. He tries his very best in every lesson and approaches his learning with a positive attitude and a strong determination to succeed. In particular, he deserves recognition for the effort he is putting into his writing, where he is working exceptionally hard to improve, showing real perseverance and resilience.

3-4LJ Layton Flanagan

We have been so proud of Layton this term. He has worked so hard to make the right choices, even when frustrated and this has really impressed us. The maturity he is showing speaks volumes about his progress and attitude to school life. In class Layton is putting his hand up a lot more and in English, especially, is really showing what he is capable of. Layton is being safe inside and outside, is producing great independent work and working cooperatively with all children in our class. He is doing all this with a much more positive attitude. Such a fantastic term - well done and keep it up!

4KC Arlo Harris

For being a true role model and an outstanding Year 4 pupil. Arlo always follows our CRICK school values, always works extremely hard and is a fantastic friend and partner

4DO Orla Walsh

Orla is truly deserving of the Headteacher's Award. Her commitment to embodying our school's values is evident in her consistently kind and caring interactions with everyone around her. Beyond her wonderful character, Orla demonstrates remarkable resilience. She approaches every lesson with a dedicated work ethic, always giving her absolute best effort, even when it is challenging or tricky. This combination of outstanding character and unwavering commitment to learning makes Orla a fantastic role model and a truly worthy recipient of this special award. Well done!

5SH Evelyn Denny

What an absolute star Evelyn is. She sets a standard with her determination to do her very best in everything. Her resilience when meeting challenges is outstanding. She never, ever gives up! Evelyn displays all the core values of our school and shines when working with others. She is kind, thoughtful and caring and a wonderful partner to all.

Evelyn, you are an absolute joy to have in our classroom. I am so proud of you! Keep shining and being you 😊

5VH Theo Petrou

Theo, what can I say? Your first term in year 5 has been phenomenal for you as a student at Broadstone Hall. You have transformed your attitude towards learning and there have been multiple adults around the school who have commented on how much more mature and focused you have become. You have incredible knowledge of so many subjects and it is amazing to see that you are now demonstrating this through fantastic writing and class discussions.

Your motivation to complete your work independently has been fantastic and it's great to see you editing and improving your work too. It has been great to watch you working with a partner and within a team collaboratively especially during science investigations. You absolutely shone during our swimming lessons and it was so lovely to see your enthusiasm each session. It is also an absolute delight that we are seeing your smile more and more. Keep up this hard work Theo, I know that you can and will do incredible things and I hope you believe this too!

5VH Maisie Clark

Maisie, you are a shining star in our class. You work incredibly hard in all lessons and are always thriving to succeed.

Your confidence has blossomed throughout this term and it's lovely to see you share your super ideas with the class. Maisie, you are one of the most supportive and kind children that I can think of. The way that you work with your partner in class is exemplary and anyone is lucky to be seated next to you. You have a magical way of explaining things to others which makes them want to listen and learn from you. Thank you Maisie! You always try your hardest to embody all of our core learning values and you are a superb role model for all of the children at Broadstone Hall. Your attitude to learning is fantastic and you always cheer us all up with your charming and smiley personality. Keep shining Maisie, you are incredible!

5NT Jasmin Abdullah

It is a pleasure to nominate Jasmin for a Headteacher's Award. Jasmin has always tried her best in each and every lesson since September. She is resilient and always gives her best shot, even when things get tricky. Her smile lights up our classroom and she brings a beautiful, positive energy every day. She is kind and respectful to all adults, both in and outside of the classroom. Jasmin consistently follows our CRICK values and is a positive role model for others.

She always shares her thoughtful ideas. Jasmin, you should be very proud of your efforts – you are a STAR! 😊

6CM Alfie Collicott

He has been an incredible role model with his buddy this term. He has shown such an improved level of confidence in his maths and reading. Being resilient is a huge part of what has made Alfie stand out in 6CM.

6LK Oscar Dyson

Oscar's effort since the start of Year 6 has been fantastic. He is trying his best consistently and facing problems with resilience. This has allowed him to make brilliant progress since September. Not only is he setting the standards in his work, Oscar is a role model outside of the classroom. He treats all his classmates with kindness and as a result, is a lovely person to be around. Keep being your best self Oscar - you are truly smashing Y6.

6RD Macie Timblin

Macie puts 100% effort into everything she does which has enabled her to make significant progress. Macie is a perfect role model who consistently uses all the CRICK values, particularly showing kindness to everyone.

Boathouse 1 Ohanes Badashian

Ohanes has had a wonderful term.

He has shown great resilience and confidence when going into class and when appearing on stage. His singing and signing in the nativity were amazing. Well done Ohanes.

Boathouse 2 Carissa Flanagan

Carissa has been trying so hard in everything she does which has enabled her to make significant progress in class. Keep being your best self Carissa - you are truly smashing Y6.
