

BROADSTONE HALL PRIMARY SCHOOL NEWSLETTER

Week 36 ending Friday 22nd May 2026

Welcome to the Broadstone Hall
Primary School Newsletter!

HEADTEACHERS NOTE:

It looks like the good weather is here just in time for the holidays! I would like to thank everyone that took part in the Parent Survey 2026; the results of which I will publish in due course. The winner of the £50 Amazon voucher is...

ANDREW ROBERTS father of Theo 2MK

Congratulations, we will contact you after the Whit Holidays.

Broadstone Hall Playground Campaign!

"26 for 2026" ACTIVITY DAY @ 19th June!

We have decided that all 26 activities for £26 in 2026 will take place in school Friday 19th June. There is no need for you to do any activities at home over the holidays; instead, the whole school will be transformed into a fundraising hub with 26 activity stations set up for each year group to complete! These have been outlined on the back of each Sponsorship Form:

EYFS – Nursery & Rec

KS1 – Year 1 & 2

LKS2 – Years 3 & 4

UKS2 – Years 4, 5 and 6

Give as you Live
Donate

Fundraising days like these only happen once a year and have always been hugely successful. The only question left now is...can you raise £26 in 2026? "Give as You Live" page <https://donate.giveasyoulive.com/charity/friends-of-broadstone>

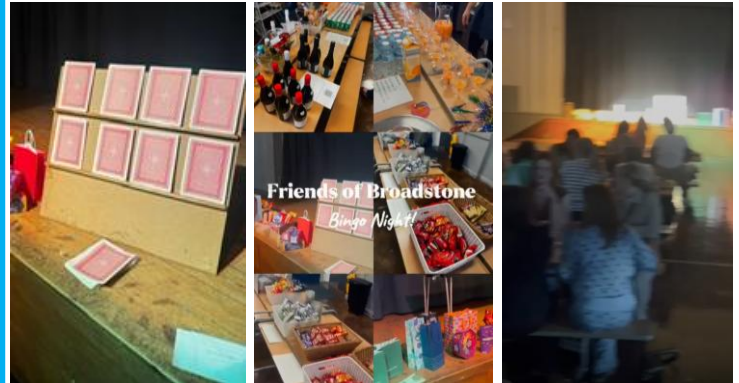

Broadstone Hall Primary School
Can you raise £26?

YEAR 3 & 4 WORK WORKSHOP

This week, Year 3 & 4 children took part in a Worry Workshop with Lina (our assigned Schools Mental Health Support Team practitioner.) They explored ways to recognise worries & learnt strategies to help manage them. The sessions sparked some lovely class discussions & the children had lots of fun.

FOB BINGO NIGHT

FOB would like to say a massive thank you to everyone who joined the Boozy Bingo on Friday night! We had a great evening and raised over £800!!! A special shout out to Marianne and Bobby for organising and hosting! We will DEFINITELY be repeating it!

Y5 ANGLO SAXON & VIKING DAY @ WEAVER HALL

The children in Year 5 had the exciting opportunity to visit Weaver Hall Museum on Tuesday to take part in a selection of activities to support their learning of the Anglo-Saxon & Viking invasions & struggles. All activities were designed to be hands on to give children an understanding of what life was like.

FOB BOTTLE DONATION DAY

In preparation for our FOB FEST, Summer Garden Party; we need to restock out FOB Shed with your help! So, on Friday 12th June we are celebrating the start of the World Cup with a "Wear Your Trainers" to school day – in exchange for a bottle; of any kind, from washing up liquid to beer, bubble bath to prosecco & everything in between! DATES FOR JUNE

CRICK:

Reception:

RBW "Resilient" – Harry S. We are so proud of your hard work and effort with your reading and writing this week. You have impressed us all, keep it up Harry!

RLE "Independent" Munriya K - So proud to see how much your confidence has improved which has now made you more "independent" with your work. We are all very excited to see how your writing has improved and you have "wowed" us with your reading. Well Done 😊

RAF "Confident" – Elliot S - for showing such improved confidence during his PE sessions. He shows super independence when getting changed and a smiley confidence when taking part. Brilliant!

Year 1:

1CL "Cooperative" Lily S for always working really hard, being a great shoulder partner and always looking out for others. Lily is an all-round superstar!

1CR "Cooperative" Felicity Y - For being a kind and co-operative partner when working at your table and for sharing resources fairly.

Class 1/2:

"Resilience" James M! James is trying really hard with all his work and showing much more resilience when things get tough. Well done!

Year 2

2SH "Cooperative" Eli brilliant shoulder partner

2MK "Confident" Lyla P For having a positive attitude towards maths and for being more confident.

Year 3:

3EE "Kind" – Iman A is kind to 'everyone' and has a lovely way of making people feel special. She is a great shoulder partner and a role model for our class.

3LW "Resilience" Benji S- G Benji has been trying really hard to improve his concentration and focus during lessons. He has shown a positive attitude, kept going and should be very proud of the progress he is making.

Class 3/4:

"Resilient" – Subhan F - for having a great attitude when maths became challenging. Well done!

Year 4:

4KC "Resilient" Zack - for participating in every lesson and achieving fab results in our money unit. Khaleesi - Showing tons of resilience during a challenging time.

4DO "Resilient" All of 4DO for being extremely resilient this week, when we were making our torches in DT. It was really tricky and fiddly but everyone kept trying and all succeeded! I am so proud of all of 4DO!

Year 5:

5VH "Cooperative" - Isaac M for working so well with other children. Isaac is a kind, patient and supportive partner.

5NT "Confident" - Eliza D - This week, on our trip, Eliza showed excellent history subject knowledge about the Anglo-Saxons and Vikings! Keep up the confidence 😊

5SH "Confidence" Ollie S. Ollie answered some really tricky questions on our Anglo-Saxon and Viking Day. He knew that bronze was made of copper and tin. Wow!

Year 6:

6RD "Resilience" Adesiree has shown great resilience in DT this week as she tried some foods that she was very unsure about at first!

6LK "Independent" Ella P for working incredibly hard independently in everything she does!

6CM "Independent" Sebastian A who has worked brilliantly this week, largely without a learning partner, but always with a positive attitude.

WRITER OF THE WEEK:

Year 1:

1CL Elias T for always putting in great effort in all writing sessions and working hard on his letter sizing.

1CR Maria D - For writing brilliant sentences this week and for always trying your best with your handwriting.

Class 1/2:

Cruz C for exceptional progress and resilience with his writing. Keep it up Cruz we are so proud of you!

Year 2:

2SH Oliva H brilliant sentences, correct punctuation, pleasure to read.

2MK Theo R For writing a super acrostic poem about meerkats.

Year 3:

3EE Chester H really impressed Mrs E with the improvement of his sentence structure in his latest piece of writing, including some super vocabulary alongside our required features.

3LW Jude A Jude has worked so hard on his presentation all year and the progress he has made is incredible. His handwriting has come on so much and he is now taking real pride in his work. It is lovely to see all of his hard work paying off.

Class 3/4:

Signe L-S - Signe is the first child in our Y3 group to get a pen - her handwriting is super, she takes such care no matter what she is writing and in every lesson. Well done!

Year 4:

4KC Alex A for a wonderful retell of the Iron Man's great fall including all of the necessary features.

4DO Kylo S for a great retell of the Iron Man falling from the cliff. Not only are your ideas excellent, so is your handwriting. Well done!

Year 5:

5VH Otis D - for making a fantastic start with creating descriptive sentences for his setting description from Macbeth.

5NT James F - I was so impressed with James's sentence work this week. In particular, our 'parenthesis' lesson where James independently thought of some great sentences. Great job! 😊

5SH Tobias I am so impressed with Tobias's sentences when describing the heathland in Macbeth-super punctuation too.

Year 6:

6RD Kian McN– Kan has written some fantastic personification sentences this week to describe the Capulet tomb!

6LK Polly B for a beautiful description of the Capulet tomb in Romeo and Juliet with excellent personification.

6CM Tom R for some outstanding writing describing the eerie setting of Verona from Romeo and Juliet.

STAR OF THE WEEK:

Reception:

RBW Ivy TH. Ivy is such a kind and caring friend to everyone, she always tries her best and is a role model to others. Well done Ivy!

RLE Aurelia L - So proud of you Aurelia!! Aurelia is always putting her hand up in class activities, joining in and contributing with great ideas. Her reading and writing is showing great confidence and she is able to read with expression through her enjoyment of stories! We love the energy Aurelia and she is such a pleasure to chat with! Well done Aurelia 😊

RAF Lily H- for being a super star in so many ways! Lily tries so hard during her phonics learning. She has particularly impressed me with her determination and resilience to complete a tricky obstacle course. She DID NOT GIVE UP! Wow Lily, well done.

Year 1:

1CL Simmone W for being super independent this week and trying her best with all of her work. Simmone is even starting to share her great ideas with the class, well done Simmone!

1CR Ayda G - For being a fantastic role model for your friends and for always having a go at something challenging before asking for help.

Class 1/2:

Sonny T for an amazing week! Sonny is trying so hard with his learning, showing respect and always helping others. Well done!

Year 2:

2SH Eva always ready making the right choices

2MK Josh H For being more respectful on the carpet and for super effort in his writing lessons.

Year 3:

3EE Isla N is always willing to help others and me. She tries really hard, shows resilience when things are tricky and is a role model to others.

3LW Eryn McM Eryn always works incredibly hard and consistently produces excellent work. She stays focused, gives 100% to everything she does and is a pleasure to teach.

Class 3/4:

Zayyan R - Zayyan has shown his maturity this week and impressed his teachers with his effort. Well done!

Year 4:

4KC Alex M for fantastic ideas in his writing.

4DO Leonie SC for working well with others and following our CRICK values. Well done.

Year 5:

5VH Theo P for making a super effort in all written work. I am very impressed!

5NT Olivia L - I could give you this any week Olivia, you are always demonstrating our crick values and you are such a helpful and caring member of 5NT. We are lucky to have you in our class! 😊

5SH Cooper was really enthusiastic in his role as a Viking Lord. He took part in the Anglo-Saxon and Viking Day brilliantly, listening and taking part in all the activities including dressing up!

Year 6:

6RD Muhammad R– Muhammad is a fantastic role model in and across the whole school! He has worked incredibly hard this whole half term to reach his full potential and has really grown in confidence!

6LK Eshan A for being a role model for the rest of the class with his kindness!

6CM George H for having such a positive, enthusiastic and hardworking attitude all week.
