Fallen Fields

Y5/6 Autumn 2 Homework Menu

Each week, select something from the menu to do as homework – I hope you enjoy having the choice! It should take you approximately half an hour to do your homework each week; however, you may spend longer on it if you like. Use your homework book (and line guide) but you can also produce your homework in any other way you like… be creative – we can always take a photo of it! You can add it to Seesaw too!

Construct a graph to illustrate the numbers of soldiers lost by each country that took part in WW1	Find out about the zeppelin bombing in Sheffield. Write up / present your research.	Write a short newspaper report announcing the beginning of WW1. Show off and add interesting info about Royalty, Prime Minister, Hitler, countries involved.	Research a famous woman from WW1 and write a fact file about her.
Make a map. Include the countries which were involved in WW1 – both allies and enemies. Illustrate with flags.	Visit a local war memorial or museum and write about what you have learned.	Research about the use of horses/ other animals in war. Write about what you have discovered.	Create a 3D model or draw a detailed picture of soldier. Make sure the uniform is correct for WW1.
Design your own remembrance poppy or medal. Write a paragraph about the reasons behind your design.	Create a timeline to illustrate key events in the First World War. Illustrate with pictures, either drawn yourself or taken from magazines/the internet.	Create a 3D model of either a WW1 tank or the trenches. Write instructions explaining how you created this.	Write a war poem about life as a soldier.
Design your own WW1 propaganda poster to persuade men to join the army.	Write a diary home – describe what life is like in the trenches.	Create a painting or drawing of Flanders Fields	Write a recipe that soldiers could cook up in the trenches, using the food and equipment they had available to them.
Surprise your teacher. Create your own task based on WW1 to amaze your teacher!
