CARING, LEARNING and GROWING together.”

Newsletter 16th October 2026

Our Reception children took part in a Scarecrow competition this week. What a fabulous display of colourful, creative and fun Scarecrows.

Year 6

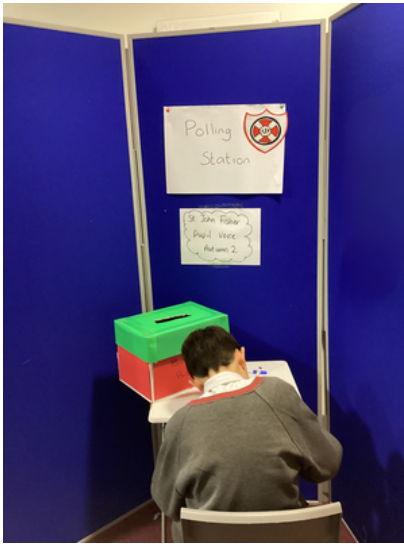

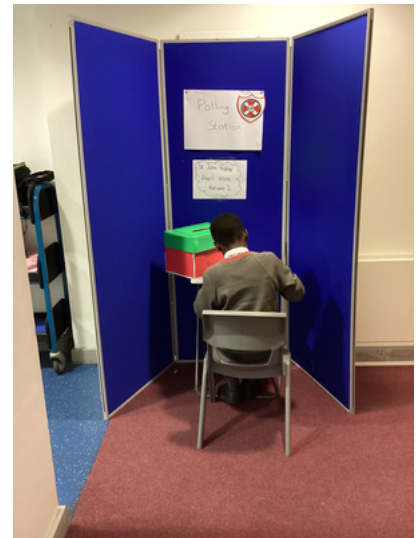

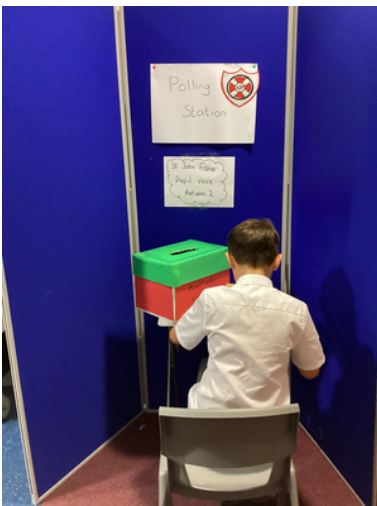

Year 6 combining the one-point perspective skills they learnt in art with their RE understanding of St. John Vianney's journey to priesthood.

Pupil Voice

Year 5 have been voting for the first of our “Pupil Voice” panel. The panel will change every half term, allowing KS2 children to participate and focus on British Values across the school.

Your VOICE MATTERS

Year 4

Pat From the Parish came into school to talk about the Rosary with Year 4.

Year 4 Learning the Rosary
