

Dear parents and carers,

It's been a busy week in school. The children looked fantastic in their World book Day costumes yesterday and there was lots of fantastic work, based around our book 'When I Grow Up.' Thank you to all of those children who have supported Caritas by bringing in some money for Rainbow Friday today too.

Parents Meetings were very positive on Wednesday, and it was lovely to see lots of smiling faces on the way out. We are really keen to hear from parents about your ideas for school and questions you may have, and we will be hosting a coffee morning on Wednesday, 1st April at 9am – you are all welcome to attend.

Have a good weekend.

World Book Day

What a fantastic celebration of all things reading! The children looked fantastic and enjoyed their World Book Day activities and had the opportunity to listen to our visitors to learn all about the opportunities that are available to them as they get older and how they can make their aspirations a reality!

Bereavement: We send our thoughts and prayers to the family and friends of Jo Phillips, our Art specialist teacher, who sadly passed away recently. Eternal rest, grant unto her O Lord and let perpetual light shine upon her, may she rest in peace. Amen.
