Remembrance day
Lest We forget

Each year we gather together as a whole school to remember all of those who gave their lives for us in wars and battles across the years.

Remembrance Day is held on the 11th of November - the 11th day of the 11th month of the year. A two minute silence is always held at 11am to remember the millions who have died at war. Remembrance Day was first held in 1919, one year after World War I ended. It is sometimes known as Armistice day.

On Remembrance Day, people lay wreaths of poppies on statues and monuments to remember all the soldiers who died for us.

Poppies are worn on Remembrance Day because they are the flowers which grew on the battlefields after World War I ended.

Today we use Remembrance Day to remember all those who have died since World War 1.

IN FLANDERS FIELDS

In Flanders fields the poppies blow
Between the Crosses, row on row,
That mark our place; and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly.
Scarce heard amidst the guns below.

We are the dead.
Short days ago we lived, felt dawn,
saw sunset glow,
Loved and were loved, and now we lie
In Flanders fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe,
To you from falling hands
we throw the torch.

Be yours to hold it high.
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders fields.

From Matthew 5: 9

Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called the sons of God.

FOR THE FALLEN

*"They shall grow not old,
as we that are left grow old:
Age shall not weary them,
nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun and in the morning
We will remember them."*

— ROBERT LAURENCE BINYON —

We would also like to take time to remember all of those loved ones that we have lost.

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord,
and let perpetual light shine upon them.
May they rest in peace. Amen

Our Father, who art in heaven,
Hallowed be Thy name.

Thy kingdom come,
Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven
Give us this day our daily bread,
And forgive us our trespasses
As we forgive those who trespass against us
and lead us not into temptation
but deliver us from evil, Amen.
