BOOK BAGS

Please ensure your child brings a school book bag rather than a backpack or rucksack. Large bags can cause overcrowding in cloakrooms and may become a trip hazard. Thank you for your cooperation.

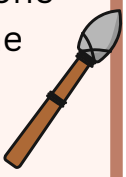

Harvest Service

On Monday our Year 5 and 6 pupils and their parents and carers were invited to the local church where they led the prayers, singing and shared poems to celebrate Harvest

Year 3 - Norton Priory and Stone Age Sleepover

On Thursday our Year 3 class went to Norton Priory Museum to take part in some exciting workshops about the Stone Age. We followed this up with a Stone Age sleep over in the school hall.

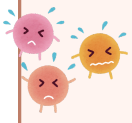

Halloween House Day

For our first house day of the year we celebrated Halloween. Instead of house colours the children were allowed to attend school in fancy dress.

The children took part in house activities in the morning and enjoyed Mr Helsby's spooky disco in the afternoon.

Flu Immunisations

We are really pleased to confirm that 108 pupils received their flu vaccinations in school on Thursday.

Any pupils who missed out will be contacted by the Immunisation Team.
