

By the end of this unit pupils will know that:

Th	many people of faith believe that it is important to say thank you to God for the harvest.
Ss	Christians believe that helping others is part of putting their faith into action.
Ss	there are Christian charities working worldwide to improve the lives of people living in countries where the harvest has failed.

By the end of this unit pupils are expected to be able to:

Ph	express feelings about the issues raised by Christian Aid/Tear Fund materials etc.
Ph	ask questions about their own and others' experiences.
Ss	talk, using religious language, about the ways in which Christians and those of Jewish faith celebrate the Harvest and give thanks to God.

I know:	✓	?
that some people believe it is important to help those who have not had a good harvest.
about Christian charities that are helping people who live in poor countries.
that Christians and people of Jewish faith believe it is good to say thank you to God for the harvest.
that the Jewish festival of harvest is called Sukkot. It is a time to celebrate, remember and give thanks.
I can:	✓	?
say what I feel about some of the things we talked about during the harvest festival project.
think of ways in which I can help others.
tell you about the ways in which Christian and Jewish people celebrate harvest.
