

Parents and carers have the legal right to withdraw their child from all or part of Religious Education (RE).

If you wish to do this, please inform the school in writing, clearly stating whether the withdrawal is from all RE lessons or specific parts. No reason needs to be given.

We encourage parents to discuss any concerns with the school so that you are fully informed about the content and aims of the RE curriculum.

Where a pupil is withdrawn, they will remain in school and be supported, but the school is not required to provide alternative teaching.

Please note that the right to withdraw applies only to RE and does not extend to other areas of the curriculum where religious topics may arise.
