Who owns the woods?

All children should have now come home with their first Sherwood 'Book Drop' book. This will be the first of many to come during their time at Sherwood. We celebrated our book drop with some Key Worker trips to Masons Wood. The children had a great time collecting Autumn Treasures. Why not have a go at getting crafty with your treasures? There are lots of fab ideas online e.g. <https://www.woodlandtrust.org.uk/blog/2020/10/autumn-leaf-crafts-for-kids/>

Book Drop 2025

Our EYFS Book Drop book for 2025 is 'Who Owns the Woods' by Emily Hibbs and Jess Mason.

Follow a little boy and his grandma as they wander through the wild and wonderful woods. From the forest creatures who scamper, crawl or fly through the leaves to the trees and plants which sway with the breeze, the woods are full of curious and beautiful life. As the boy is introduced to more and more of the phenomena of the forest, he begins to ask an important question: who owns the woods?

Enjoy listening to Mrs Hanson reading the story here:

Who Owns the Woods?

Lesson: EYFS

Class: Foundation Year: 2025 - 2026

This week has seen the launch of the EYFS book drop book, 'Who Owns the Woods?' As part of our exploration of the text, the children have been visiting Masons wood in their Key Worker groups. The weather has not always been on our side but the children have all shown resilience and enthusiasm. We had a great time collecting Autumn treasures and getting muddy!
