Jack and the beanstalk.

I feel so guilty, I was only trying to help and mum threw ~~some~~ last hope out of the window. I went to bed sad and hungry, I woke up in shock to see a giant beanstalk outside in the garden. I couldn't believe it. I climbed up the beanstalk and again and again until I reached the top! my jaw dropped when I saw a castle right in front of me. I ran to it with all my speed, the door was huge that I crawled underneath it, I saw a giant eating his dinner, he called over his servant "hey get me my gold coins" he shouted. When he was counting he fell asleep, I snatched the gold coins, I rushed down the beanstalk heart pounding, "MUM" I shouted "come look" I said. Dear those are the coins ~~at~~ the giant took from your father years ago "cried Mum", but you have to promise me not to go back there "ok mum" when mum went back inside I was thinking what else could be up there. I went back up and I found the giant eating again. When I got to the top I saw the giant eating "again" He called over his servant "oi get my magical herb" he shouted. He fell back asleep so I snatched grabbed the herb and all the sudden it started to play!! The giant woke up and saw me! "oh no" I thought "hey thats mine!" Shouted to giant I ran for my life I quickly ~~got to bottom and chopped~~ down the beanstalk, and the giant was never seen again!

Scrambled down legs shaking I almost fell! Finally I got to the bottom I grabbed an axe next to me and chopped the beanstalk down, The giant was never seen again, but hey at least ~~me and my mum are happy~~. Jack!

But me and mum lived happily ever after.

JACK.
