

Wednesday 28th January 2026

L.I. TO write a fact file file.

Rhino

What does Rhinos eat?

Rhinos are herbivores, obtaining their nutrients from feeding on plants matter such as shoots, leaves, berries, fruits, buds and grass. Rhinos they tend to feed at night or during the cooler hours of the day.

Where do they live?

Black Rhinos are found in 12 countries in Africa, with the largest population in South Africa and Namibia.