

My Autobiography

My name is Ramin Mohammadi. I was born on a cold winter's ^{day} on 15th December, in 2015. I grew up in a place called Kuble, just in the middle of Afghanistan. I live with my father, my Mother and my sister. My sister is 9 years old. She is in Guiston school. She is in year four. My father is called Mohammad he works in a pharmacy, he is 38 years old. My mum is called Huma, she works at home, they're really, really kind.

The most significant part of my life so far was when I travelled from Afghanistan to England with my family to live a new life. I think I am really good at reading and my teacher said that I am good at learning English.

If I were to describe myself, I would say I am kind, helpful and brave. During my life so far I have overcome the challenge of learning a new language. My biggest achievement is that I got a pen license. When I grow up I want to become a footballer or a scientist.
