Finches Class Ethos

Developing a parent partnership through regular, effective communication

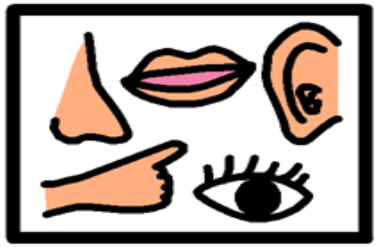

Developing communication skills through PECS, object of reference or written or verbal communication

Building independence and life skills

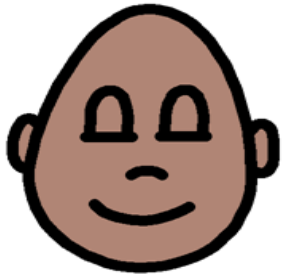

Child centred approach with personalised targets

Lots of opportunities for sensory and creative learning for a fun, motivating and stimulating environment

Clear and consistent rules and routines

Stress free and calm environment

National Autistic Society

TEACCH

Using a TEACCH approach to respond to our children's needs