FREE CHOICE

It's always important to have some freedom in what you do...

If you have been learning about something really exciting in school and want to do some further research or produce a piece of work about it, then that would be fantastic!

Make sure you share it with your teachers and class mates.

At St John's, we learn to read so that we can read to learn!

Spend 30 minutes reading each day and you will be forever thankful. This could be independently, with a family member or friend, or even reading to your pet at home! All reading is good reading.

Find a calm and peaceful place, a book you love and transport yourself to another world.

Extreme reading competition – What is the strangest place you can read your book? send your pictures on Seesaw to go on our displays in class!

Handwriting

Choose 5 of your spelling words and write them in a sentence using your neatest cursive handwriting.

Following feedback from parents evening we will be trialling sending paper versions of homework home for children to complete and return to school.

For every piece of homework completed we will be awarding Dojos.
