Friday 7th November Newsletter

Dear Parents/ Carers,

Welcome back, everyone! It has been a fantastic first week back after half term, and it's been wonderful to see the children return to school full of energy and excitement for their new topics. Year 1 have had a particularly busy week, they have been on a senses walk around school and have also enjoyed tasting a variety of fruits and vegetables as part of their new Design and Technology topic. Year 2 have started their new science unit, exploring seeds and bulbs and discussing what they might grow into, showing great curiosity and observation skills. Meanwhile, Year 6 have kicked off Non-Fiction November by exploring a range of biographies, and I'm already looking forward to reading the children's own biographical writing at the end of the unit!

Thank you to everyone for continuing to support the high standards we hold in school, particularly by ensuring children come to school in the correct uniform. If you need any new uniform items, details of our suppliers can be found on the school website. We also have a selection of pre-loved but good-quality uniform available in school – please just ask at the office or speak to Mrs Knight if you would like to have a look.

This weekend, we will have representatives from school at St Leonard's Church and the Remembrance Day parade on Sunday, starting at 9am. If any other families would like to join us, you would be very welcome. In school, our Year 6 pupils will be leading a special Remembrance service on Tuesday next week as we come together to reflect and remember those who have served. Mrs Pilkington

TAKEHOME

Should fireworks be changed so we protect animals and people at the same time?

In the news this week

An animal charity, called Redwings Horse Sanctuary, has asked the government to make fireworks quieter to help protect animals and people. Loud fireworks can scare pets, wildlife, and some people who find sudden noises upsetting. Supporters of the campaign say we can still celebrate with low-noise fireworks or light shows that keep everyone safe and happy.

Things to talk about at home ...

- > Do you celebrate Bonfire Night or an occasion with fireworks?
- > Do you enjoy fireworks? Discuss with someone at home.
- > The campaign suggests low-noise fireworks and drone shows as alternatives to traditional fireworks. For each, think about the pros and cons.

Healthy Snacks and Packed Lunches

As a healthy school we ask that only healthy snacks and packed lunches are brought into school. Over the past few weeks, we are seeing a big increase in sugary foods and snacks being brought in and in very large quantities. Please can you talk to your children about only having these in moderation and support school in sending in healthy snacks and lunches.

History

Throughout October, our classes celebrated Black History Month. Each year group had their own focus and explored didn't people, projects and purposes that shaped history forever. We launched a school wide competition to submit a poster detailing a person or event that celebrates Black History. We had some brilliant entries, but our winners were Sam- Year 5, Olivia W- Year 4 and Ocean- Year 2.

Social Media

Over the past few months we have been trying to streamline out social media accounts and make sure that the ones we have are up to date. As of September 2025 we will no longer be using X but we will be using Facebook and Instagram to share with the community what Middleforth is all about. If you have social media, please could you like, follow and share out pages. This is why it has been so important to gain image consent from everyone so please ensure the office has the most up to date permissions from yourself.

CapCut is used as a video and image editing tool allowing users to edit their videos/ images as well as add music, sound effects, text and stickers.

WhatsApp Update

School WhatsApp groups

Are you part of a parent WhatsApp group at your child's school? These groups can be useful for sharing information and reminders, but it is important to use them thoughtfully. Here are some tips on how we can ensure they remain positive and respectful:

1. Be considerate –we know messages can sometimes be misinterpreted so carefully think about what you share. These groups should not be used to share criticisms of the school, staff or other parents and children. Any concerns should always be discussed with the school directly.
2. Don't spread rumours – avoid sharing any gossip within the group.
3. Protect privacy - do not share photos or videos of other children.
4. Think before you send – be mindful of the time and if the message is necessary for everyone.

Our children watch how we communicate, so let's model healthy, online communication to them.

WhatsApp Channels

Users should be at least 13 years old to use

WhatsApp. If your child is using WhatsApp, then you should be aware of WhatsApp Channels. Channels are a one-way broadcast tool used by companies and individuals to send updates to followers. WhatsApp Channels can be found on the Updates tab. From here you can view a whole host of channels, including channels that will not be age appropriate and may include adult content.

You cannot switch off access to channels and there is no age rating associated with the channels so you would have to access them to know what the content truly is. Klicksafe highlight what you should be aware of: <https://www.klicksafe.eu/en/news/was-sind-whatsapp-kanale-und-was-muessen-eltern-beachten>

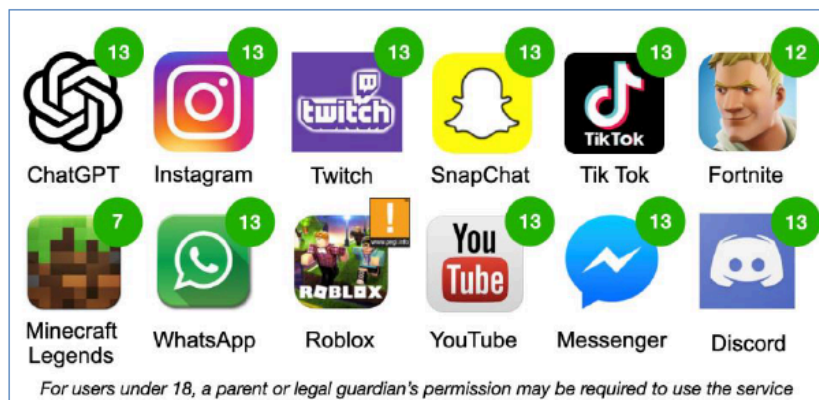

Find out more about WhatsApp channels in general here: <https://faq.whatsapp.com/549900560675125>

Age Ratings

Age ratings exist to help protect your child by showing whether content is suitable for your child's age. Whether your child is viewing films, accessing apps, playing games online or using social media— make sure you check the age rating first to see if your child is old enough.

Popular apps and their age ratings

Here are the age ratings of some of the more popular apps that young people are currently accessing.

In addition to checking the age rating, the likes of PEGI (Pan European Game Information) provide further content descriptors, which will give you an indication of the type of content that your child might encounter e.g. violence or bad language within a game.

What else should I review?

It is important to note that whilst age ratings do allow you to see if something may be appropriate for your child, it is also vital to review the content yourself. This will allow you to make an informed decision as to whether it is suitable for your child to access and if it is necessary to apply further parental controls. For example, does it include the ability to communicate with others and are in game/app purchases available?

What else can I do?

- Explain the importance of age ratings to your child and how they protect them.
- Go online together to see what your child is accessing.
- Set up parental controls on your broadband, devices and on any individual apps that your child is using. This will reduce the chances of them accessing or viewing anything unsuitable.
- Chat to your child regularly about what they are doing online and remind your child that if anything is worrying them then they should talk to you or another trusted adult.

Online Roasting

Have you heard of this term? It has been around a while now, but Online Roasting refers to a form of cyberbullying. Roasting typically involves making fun and insulting somebody, sometimes with their consent and other times not.

What can I do?

- Talk to your child about what online roasting is, ask them if they have ever experienced it and what they think about it.
- If this has negatively impacted your child then save any evidence and involve the school (if appropriate). Childline also offer further advice and support in relation to cyberbullying.
