

Week beginning Monday 8th September

Lots of collaborative team work!

Working out what uses electricity and what doesn't before learning the resources needed to make a circuit.

We are starting to add evidence of what we have learned to our History working wall.