

English

- Narratives with dialogue based on the book 'Survivors', following Juliane Koepcke's extraordinary Amazonian adventure of survival.
- Narrative and letter writing from the perspective of Stanley Velhats based on the well-known classic, and one of my favourite books, 'Holes'.

Maths

- Perimeter, area and volume
- Angles and shape
- Statistics
- Problem solving and reasoning skills

Geography

- Map work and topography
- Trade and economics

French and R.E

- This is France/All in a day
- Beliefs and moral values (Islam)

Art and Music

- All About Me (self-portraits)
- Music appraisal and composition

History

- Local area study
- Rural vs urban comparison

Year 6 - 2025/2026

Summer Term

'The Great Escape!'

PSHE

- Living in the wider world
- Health and wellbeing
- Secondary school transitions

P.E.

- Dance
- Cricket
- Tennis

Design and Technology

- Controllable vehicles project: researching, designing, making and evaluating vehicles.
- Cooking and nutrition

Computing (Purple Mash)

- Quizzing
- Spreadsheets
- 3d modelling

Science

- Identifying the circulatory system
- Describing how nutrients travel around our bodies
- Exercise and heartrate investigation
- Exploring circuits and electrical components, using them to power our controllable vehicles in D.T.

Additional notes:

- Year 6 SATS 11th- 14th May
- Year 6 residential 18th-22nd May