

Communication and Language

- Listen to my friends and teacher
- Listen to and follow an instruction
- Joining in with familiar rhymes and stories
- Beginning to link simple sentences
- Introductions of specific language linked to subject areas – Mathematical, Understanding the World
- Songs and rhymes – e.g. Number/Autumn songs, rhymes and poems

Mathematics

Topic – Just Like Me!

- Looking at similarities and differences –
- What is the same? what is different?
- Matching objects to their shape
- How can you sort the objects?
- Making simple a,b,a,b patterns
- Comparisons – taller, shorter, longer

It's Me 1,2,3!

- Introducing numbers 1,2,3
- Representing number 1,2,3
- One more and one less of number 1,2,3
- What is more and what is less or numbers 1,2,3

Personal, Social and Emotional Development

- School routines
- Class rules
- School values
- Separation from main carer
- One World Day – China??
- Star of the Day
- No Outsiders – The Family Book

Reception- Autumn First Term Overview 2022 – All About Me!

Literacy

Read, Write, Inc,

- Learning to Read and Write speed sounds – set 1. m, s,d,t,i,n,p,g,o,c,k,u,b,f,e
- Learning to hear and blend letters in words
- Books –The Gruffalo, The Button Box, Dear Zoo, The Bear Hunt, Little Red Riding Hood
- Autumn/ Halloween rhymes and songs
- Learning to write and recognise their name

Physical Development

Gross Motor Skills

- P.E. using bats and balls, scooters, big blocks, Outdoor trim trail, woodland visits, dance, putting own coats on

Fine Motor Skills

- Learning how to manage handed equipment – Such as paint brushes, scissors, rolling pins, cutters, crayons and pencils

Understanding The World

- Autumn changes
- All about me – similarities and differences
- What I can see, hear, touch, smell outdoors
- One World Day – A focus on China
- Environment around school – e.g. woodland,
- Halloween
- Introduction to sand and water play – rules
- Importance of washing hands

Expressive Arts and Design

- Introduction to materials in workshop
- Using natural materials - patterns
- Self portraits/black pen family drawings
- Exploring colour and colour changes
- Wake up song
- Number, Autumn, Halloween – songs, rhymes and poems

