

Keys to Success Activity

For this activity you simply need to visit a Victorian building in your local area. You can write a little bit about it here and/or take a photograph of you outside the building. If you think back to our research in class on local Victorian history, there are Victorian buildings all around us. You might even live in one!

The Victorian building I visited is:

(attach a picture to this or email it into school if you prefer)