

STUDY SQUAD

KS2 English

SATs Practice Workbook

Ages 10-11

SPaG

Answer
BOOK 2

Boost test confidence and results with our curriculum-aligned bite-sized revision.

Section 1

Punctuation

Pages 3–6 — Capital Letters and Full Stops

- 1) Award 1 mark for the correct words circled.

india
i agra taj mahal delhi

Do not accept the correct answer, together with other words circled.

- 2) Award 1 mark for the correct answer ticked.

We went to Birmingham for Huw's skiing party.

Do not accept an answer in which more than the required number of boxes have been ticked.

- 3) Award 1 mark for capital letters and full stops correctly inserted.

My cousin, Mikel, is talented at sport. He has played cricket for Bristol since he was nine years old and he hopes to play for England one day. If he does, I'll be there to cheer him on.

Do not accept the correct answers, together with other words not punctuated correctly.

- 4) Award 1 mark for the correct words circled.

prince harry meghan may they married windsor castle england

Do not accept the correct answers, together with other words circled.

- 5) Award 1 mark for the correct answer ticked.

I would like to visit the Isle of Wight.

Do not accept an answer in which more than the required number of boxes have been ticked.

- 6) Award 1 mark for all three correct answers ticked.

Incorrect use – We will visit my uncle in mexico

Correct use – I read an interesting book about the Second World War.

Incorrect use – Kaya has a new baby brother called Kamal

Do not accept an answer in which more than the required number of boxes have been ticked.

- 7) Award 1 mark for the correct words circled.

there easter island pacific ocean
chile

Do not accept the correct answers, together with other words circled.

- 8) Award 1 mark for capital letters and full stops correctly inserted.

A dodo was a flightless bird that lived alone in Mauritius. When humans inhabited the island, it took less than 100 years for the dodos to become extinct. In the Natural History Museum in London, they have created a digital model of the dodo.

Do not accept the correct answers, together with other words not punctuated correctly.

Pages 7–10 — Question Marks and Exclamation Marks

- 1) Award 1 mark for the correct answer.

How will we make it across the river

Do not accept an answer in which more than the required number of boxes have been ticked.

- 2) Award 1 mark for the correct answer ticked: the fourth box next to the word 'had'.

I was fortunate to visit Norway last year We arrived during a blizzard but as the weather cleared I knew we'd be lucky What a great experience we had!

Do not accept an answer in which more than the required number of boxes have been ticked.

- 3) Award 1 mark for the correct answer ticked.

How many miles have we driven

Do not accept an answer in which more than the required number of boxes have been ticked.

- 4) Award 1 mark for the correct answer ticked

The friend is giving a command.

Do not accept an answer in which more than the required number of boxes have been ticked.

- 5) Award 1 mark for a grammatically correct and accurately punctuated question.

Pupils' own responses, such as: Does the cinema have an access ramp for wheelchairs?

Do not accept misspellings.

- 6) Award 1 mark for a grammatically correct and accurately punctuated question

Pupils' own responses, such as: Am I going home?

Do not accept misspellings.

- 7) Award 1 mark for the correct answer ticked.

What is the weather tomorrow

Do not accept an answer in which more than the required number of boxes have been ticked.

- 8) Award 1 mark for a grammatically correct and accurately punctuated question.

Pupils' own responses, such as: What are you doing tonight?

Do not accept misspellings.

Pages 11–14 — Commas

- 1) Award 1 mark for the correct answer ticked.

In 2022, Rishi Sunak became

Do not accept an answer in which more than the required number of boxes have been ticked.

- 2) Award 1 mark for a correctly placed comma.

Despite finding it difficult, Julian always perseveres at sport.

- 3) Award 1 mark for two correctly placed commas.

Amal's favourite toys are unicorns, babies, building blocks and slime.

- 4) Award 1 mark for all four correct answers ticked.

Commas used incorrectly –

My lunchbox, overflowing with treats fell on the floor.

Commas used incorrectly –

My favourite foods, are pizza, pasta, fruit, and cake.

Commas used correctly – The beaver, which was wiped out 400 years ago, has been reintroduced to the UK.

Commas used correctly – My school bag is filled with reading books, pens, notepads and snacks.

Do not accept an answer in which more than the required number of boxes have been ticked.

- 5) Award 1 mark for three correctly placed commas.

She wore a bright blue coat, a woollen scarf, a hat with matching mittens, thick tights and red wellies.

- 6) Award 1 mark for a correctly placed comma.

Every morning, Mum and my sister take the dog for a walk.

- 7) Award 1 mark for the correct answer ticked.

The teenagers could choose to draw, sculpt, paint or sketch.

Do not accept an answer in which more than the required number of boxes have been ticked.

- 8) Award 1 mark for a response explaining that there are two people in the first sentence and three people in the second sentence.

Pupils' own responses, such as: In the first sentence, there are two people and in the second sentence, there are three people.

Do not accept responses that do not explain specifically how the meaning has changed, e.g., it changes the amount of people.

There are no spelling or punctuation requirements for this question.

Pages 15–18 — Inverted Commas

- 1) Award 1 mark for all four correct answers ticked.

Inverted commas used correctly –
“Can I have a cup of tea?” called Dad.

Inverted commas used incorrectly –
“Put that back said Moira.”

Inverted commas used incorrectly –
“Leave me alone” Will shouted.

Inverted commas used correctly –
“Please tidy up,” said Ms Kamal.

Do not accept an answer in which more than the required number of boxes have been ticked.

- 2) Award 1 mark for a grammatically correct and accurately punctuated sentence using direct speech.

Pupils’ own responses, such as: I asked, “Would you like to play with us?”

- 3) Award 1 mark for both correct answers ticked: the first box next to ‘The’ and the third box between ‘axes’ and ‘said’.

“The most common tools found in the Neolithic era were axes,” said Mr Box.

Do not accept an answer in which more than the required number of boxes have been ticked.

- 4) Award 1 mark for the correct answer ticked.

“Where are you all?” asked Manish.

Do not accept an answer in which more than the required number of boxes have been ticked.

- 5) Award 1 mark for a grammatically correct and accurately punctuated sentence using direct speech.

Pupils’ own responses, such as: I asked Misha, “Would you like to come to my house after school?”

- 6) Award 1 mark for all three correct answers.

“How much is a sandwich and a bag of crisps please?” questioned Mum as we stood at the till.

- 7) Award 1 mark for the correct answer ticked.

Our teachers always say, “Quality over quantity.”

Do not accept an answer in which more than the required number of boxes have been ticked.

- 8) Award 1 mark for a grammatically correct and accurately punctuated sentence using direct speech.

Pupils’ own response, such as: I questioned, “Do you think your answer is correct?”

- 9) Award 1 mark for all four correct answers.

When the train came into the station, the little boy shouted excitedly, “Wow! Look at that train.”

Pages 19–22 — Apostrophes

- 1) Award 1 mark for the correct answer ticked.

The children's books were all over the floor.

Do not accept an answer in which more than the required number of boxes have been ticked.

- 2) Award 1 mark for a response explaining that there is only one sister in the first sentence and that there is more than one sister in the second sentence.

Pupils' own responses, such as: The first sentence is about one sister but the second sentence is about more than one sister.

Do not accept responses that do not explain specifically how the meaning has changed, e.g. it changes the amount of people.

There are no spelling or punctuation requirements for this question.

- 3) Award 1 mark for all three correct answers.

I am excited that it is the final in a few days. I have asked for a treat if I win.

Do not accept misspellings.

- 4) Award 1 mark for all four correct answers ticked.

Apostrophe for a contracted form – “I'm hungry,” said Dana.

Apostrophe for possession – I think it is Mikel's coat.

Apostrophe for a contracted form – Suki's feeling ill.

Apostrophe for possession – Where is Julie's book?

Do not accept an answer in which more than the required number of boxes have been ticked.

- 5) Award 1 mark for both correct answers.

My brother doesn't like pizza but it's my favourite food.

Do not accept misspellings.

- 6) Award 1 mark for all four correct answers ticked.

False

True

False

False

Do not accept an answer in which more than the required number of boxes have been ticked.

- 7) Award 1 mark for a correctly placed apostrophe.

At the garage, the buses' tyres needed replacing.

Pages 23–26 — Punctuation for Parenthesis

- 1) Award 1 mark for the correct answer ticked.

I am 1.54 metres (5 feet) tall.

Do not accept an answer in which more than the required number of boxes have been ticked.

- 2) Award 1 mark for a correctly placed pair of commas.

James, a boy in my sister's class, is an amazing tennis player.

- 3) Award 1 mark for a correct response, e.g. brackets/pair of brackets/dash/dashes/pair of dashes.

Later (after we've finished our homework) we will go to play in the garden.

Later – after we've finished our homework – we will go to play in the garden.

There are no spelling or punctuation requirements for this question.

- 4) Award 1 mark for a correctly placed pair of brackets.

The longest river in the world is the Nile (6,650 kilometres long) in Africa.

- 5) Award 1 mark for both correct answers ticked.

We have a toybox – it is overflowing with toys – in our playroom.

The little owl, which is around 20cm tall, is usually seen during the day.

Do not accept an answer in which more than the required number of boxes have been ticked.

- 6) Award 1 mark for a correctly placed pair of dashes.

My dogs – Cass and Jess – love finding lost balls.

- 7) Award 1 mark for a correctly placed pair of commas.

Emperor penguins, one of the largest species of bird, are considered to be near threatened.

- 8) Award 1 mark for the correct answer ticked.

My cousin works for the NHS (National Health Service) in England.

Do not accept an answer in which more than the required number of boxes have been ticked.

- 9) Award 1 mark for a correctly placed pair of dashes.

At the concert, Zeke – the tallest boy there – could see perfectly.

- 10) Award 1 mark for the correct answer ticked.

My friend – from swimming club – is sleeping over tonight.

Do not accept an answer in which more than the required number of boxes have been ticked.

- 11) Award 1 mark for a correctly placed pair of brackets.

I love strawberries (and raspberries) but I am not too keen on cranberries.

Pages 27–30 — Colons, Semi-Colons and Single Dashes

- 1) Award 1 mark for the correct answer ticked.

I play football weekly – I am in my local team.

Do not accept an answer in which more than the required number of boxes have been ticked.

- 2) Award 1 mark for a correctly placed colon.

I earned two new Brownie badges last term: first aid and home safety.

- 3) Award 1 mark for the correct answer ticked.

semi-colon

Do not accept an answer in which more than the required number of boxes have been ticked.

- 4) Award 1 mark for the correct answer ticked.

Last summer, we visited three different cities: Bristol, Bath and Cardiff.

Do not accept an answer in which more than the required number of boxes have been ticked.

- 5) Award 1 mark for a correctly placed semi-colon.

This year, Hassan has made good progress; he works hard in all lessons.

- 6) Award 1 mark for a correctly placed dash.

It was a very exciting lesson – we designed our own toy and made it out of wood.

- 7) Award 1 mark for the correct answer ticked.

It was windy and raining; the children wanted to go home.

Do not accept an answer in which more than the required number of boxes have been ticked.

- 8) Award 1 mark for the correct answer ticked: the fourth box between 'shops' and 'I'.

I decided that I needed to go to the shops: I had used all of the milk.

Do not accept an answer in which more than the required number of boxes have been ticked.

- 9) Award 1 mark for a correctly placed dash.

The film was scary – it was full of ghosts and ghouls.

- 10) Award 1 mark for the correct answer ticked: the third box between 'summer' and 'she'.

The girl wants to visit Italy next summer; she also wants to visit Mexico.

Do not accept an answer in which more than the required number of boxes have been ticked.

- 11) Award 1 mark for a correctly placed colon.

The cheetah is the fastest mammal: it can reach speeds of 75 miles per hour.

Pages 31–34 — Hyphens

- 1) Award 1 mark for both correctly inserted hyphens.

I didn't enjoy the film because there was a man-eating shark chasing a red-faced boy through the sea.

- 2) Award 1 mark for the correct answer ticked.

My sister's friend is well-known for his excellent baking skills.

Do not accept an answer in which more than the required number of boxes have been ticked.

- 3) Award 1 mark for all three correct answers ticked.

Hyphen used correctly – After the match, we enjoyed a well-earned rest.

Hyphen used incorrectly – My little-brother is very strong willed.

Hyphen used correctly – The vet need to re-examine my dog when she hurt her paw.

Do not accept an answer in which more than the required number of boxes have been ticked.

- 4) Award 1 mark for the correct answer ticked: the first box between 'well' and 'known'.

The well-known author came to our school during book week.

Do not accept an answer in which more than the required number of boxes have been ticked.

- 5) Award 1 mark for the correct answer ticked.

My blue-eyed cousin has a fiery temper.

Do not accept an answer in which more than the required number of boxes have been ticked.

- 6) Award 1 mark for both correctly inserted hyphens.

The spaceship will re-enter the Earth's atmosphere when it has completed its death-defying mission.

- 7) Award 1 mark for a correctly inserted hyphen.

The new shop had mouth-watering cakes displayed in the window.

- 8) Award 1 mark for the correct answer ticked: the second box between 'first' and 'class'.

The family of four entered the first-class train carriage.

Do not accept an answer in which more than the required number of boxes have been ticked.

- 9) Award 1 mark for all four correct answers matched.

co-author

de-ice

pre-empt

re-educate

Do not accept an answer that has multiple lines drawn to or from the same box.

- 10) Award 1 mark for the correct answer ticked.

The ten-year-old boy loved his pet dog.

Do not accept an answer in which more than the required number of boxes have been ticked.

35–38 — Punctuation Mixed Practice

- 1) Award 1 mark for the correct answer ticked.

My cousins, Freya and Sophie, will visit us in the summer.

Do not accept an answer in which more than the required number of boxes have been ticked.

- 2) Award 1 mark for a correctly placed pair of brackets.

Justin is the tallest boy (1.7 metres) in our class.

- 3) Award 1 mark for a grammatically correct and accurately punctuated sentence using direct speech.

Pupils' own responses, such as: I asked, "Mum, will I be allowed a new phone?"

Do not accept misspellings.

- 4) Award 1 mark for both a correctly placed comma and a correctly inserted hyphen.

Travelling to France, we went on the high-speed ferry.

- 5) Award 1 mark for the correct answer ticked.

What are we doing next

Do not accept an answer in which more than the required number of boxes have been ticked.

- 6) Award 1 mark for the correct answer ticked.

semi-colon

Do not accept an answer in which more than the required number of boxes have been ticked.

- 7) Award 1 mark for all four correct answers ticked.

Apostrophe for singular possession –

The dog's toys were buried in the garden.

Apostrophe for plural possession – My brothers' favourite sports are gymnastics and skiing.

Apostrophe for plural possession –

The teachers' cars were washed for charity.

Apostrophe for singular possession

– My cousin's teddies were all over the floor.

Do not accept an answer in which more than the required number of boxes have been ticked.

- 8) Award 1 mark for a grammatically correct and accurately punctuated question using all the given words once.

Pupils' own responses, such as: "What time will the new toy shop be open?"

Do not accept misspellings.

- 9) Award 1 mark for the correct answer ticked.

"Can you come to play?" asked Lee.

Do not accept an answer in which more than the required number of boxes have been ticked.

- 10) Award 1 mark for both correct answers.

Gita hasn't completed her homework because she's been ill.

Do not accept misspellings.

- 11) Award 1 mark for capital letters and full stops correctly inserted.

Perseverance was the name of the new rover that was built to explore Mars. It landed on its surface in February 2021 and it was streamed live online.

Do not accept the correct answers, together with other words not punctuated correctly.

- 12) Award 1 mark for a response explaining that there is only one member in the first sentence and that there is more than one member in the second sentence.

Pupils' own responses, such as:

The first sentence is about one member and their votes but the second sentence is about more than one member.

Do not accept responses that do not explain specifically how the meaning has changed, e.g. it changes the amount of members.

There are no spelling or punctuation requirements for this question.

- 13) Award 1 mark for the correct answer ticked: the fourth box between 'fat' and 'free'.

For breakfast, I had juicy strawberries and blueberries that were in season and covered in fat-free yoghurt.

Do not accept an answer in which more than the required number of boxes have been ticked.

- 14) Award 1 mark for a correctly placed dash.

Joseph enjoyed going to the forest – he loves to play hide and seek.

- 15) Award 1 mark for both correctly placed commas, a correctly placed pair of inverted commas and a correctly placed full stop.

As we got off of the bus, my friend exclaimed excitedly, "I cannot wait to see the new film."

- 16) Award 1 mark for both correct answers ticked.

There are different types of books – including poetry – in the library.

I included one tablespoon (approximately 17 grams) of sugar.

Do not accept an answer in which more than the required number of boxes have been ticked.

- 17) Award 1 mark for both correctly placed commas and a correctly placed colon.

My grandmother has asked me to go to the shops. She has run out of the ingredients to make her famous spaghetti bolognese: tinned tomatoes, peppers and onions. Even though my mother does not like pasta, my grandmother still makes it for me.

Section 2

Vocabulary and Standard English

Pages 41–44 — Synonyms and Antonyms

- 1) Award 1 mark for the correct words circled.

bellow yell call

Do not accept the correct answer, together with other words circled.

- 2) Award 1 mark for all four correctly matched answers.

expensive – cheap ancient – modern difficult – easy admit – deny

Do not accept an answer that has multiple lines drawn to or from the same box.

- 3) Award 1 mark for all three correct insertions of an appropriate synonym.

small – little/tiny/miniature make – construct/build/assemble/produce unwell – poorly/sick/ill/ailing

Accept other appropriate synonyms that are not listed above.

There are no spelling or punctuation requirements for this question.

- 4) Award 1 mark for all three correct insertions of an appropriate antonym.

dark – light/bright/lit before – after/afterwards/later/behind above – below/under/inferior

Accept other appropriate antonyms that are not listed above.

There are no spelling or punctuation requirements for this question.

- 5) Award 1 mark for the correct words circled.

lengthy prolonged

Do not accept the correct answer, together with other words circled.

- 6) Award 1 mark for the correct words circled.

uninhabited populated

Do not accept the correct answer, together with other words circled.

- 7) Award 1 mark for the correct answer ticked.

construct

Do not accept an answer in which more than the required number of boxes have been ticked.

- 8) Award 1 mark for the correct answer ticked.

happy

Do not accept an answer in which more than the required number of boxes have been ticked.

Pages 45–48 — Prefixes

- 1) Award 1 mark for the correct words circled.

overexcited
disbelief superhero
unleashing antivenom automated

Do not accept the correct answer, together with other words circled.

- 2) Award 1 mark for all three correct answers matched.

misbehave – to act incorrectly overconfident – to be too sure of yourself reconsider – to think about something again

Do not accept an answer that has multiple lines drawn to or from the same box.

- 3) Award 1 mark for the correct answer ticked.

to not believe

Do not accept an answer in which more than the required number of boxes have been ticked.

- 4) Award 1 mark for all three correct answers matched.

mis- lead dis- own de- activate

Do not accept an answer that has multiple lines drawn to or from the same box.

- 5) Award 1 mark for all three correct answers matched replace – take the place of displace – take over the place misplace – put in the wrong place

Do not accept an answer that has multiple lines drawn to or from the same box.

- 6) Award 1 mark for the correct answer.

re

Accept re- as an answer.

Do not accept misspellings.

- 7) Award 1 mark for all four correct answers matched.

superhero
illogical impossible interview

Do not accept an answer that has multiple lines drawn to or from the same box.

Pages 49–52 — Suffixes

- 1) Award 1 mark for all five correct answers matched.

clockwise
otherwise childlike lengthwise lifelike

Do not accept the correct answer, together with other lines drawn.

- 2) Award 1 mark for all three correct answers matched.

adventurous – adjective

falsify – verb

fixation – noun

Do not accept an answer that has multiple lines drawn to or from the same box.

- 3) Award 1 mark for the correct answer ticked.

The word changes from an adjective to a verb.

Do not accept an answer in which more than the required number of boxes have been ticked.

- 4) Award 1 mark for the correct answer.

The generous individual made a huge donation to charity.

Do not accept misspellings.

- 5) Award 1 mark for both correct answers.

The shop decided to advertise for a new assistant.

They wanted to recruit someone friendly and considerate.

Do not accept misspellings.

- 6) Award 1 mark for both correct answers.

The tradesman began to decorate the room.

We hung up a decoration on the front door.

Do not accept misspellings.

- 7) Award 1 mark for both correct answers.

The two girls have a great friendship and they get along very well.

It was a great disappointment that we did not win the match.

Do not accept misspellings.

Pages 53–56 — Word Families

- 1) Award 1 mark for the correct words circled.

speakerphone

earphones

phoneme

euphonic

phonetic

Do not accept the correct answer, together with other words circled.

- 2) Award 1 mark for all three correct answers.

I asked the celebrity for their autograph.

There was a paragraph in the article that mentioned lions.

The computer graphics were outstanding.

Do not accept misspellings.

- 3) Award 1 mark for both correct answers.

Ally cycled to school on her new bicycle/tricycle.

Do not accept misspellings.

- 4) Award 1 mark for the correct answer ticked.

build or assemble

Pages 57–60 — Standard English

Do not accept an answer in which more than the required number of boxes have been ticked.

- 5) Award 1 mark for both correct answers.

There was an electrical fault with the alarm, so the electrician visited the premises to fix the problem.

Do not accept misspellings.

- 6) Award 1 mark for the correct answer ticked.

to hear

Do not accept an answer in which more than the required number of boxes have been ticked.

- 7) Award 1 mark for both correct answers.

We laughed so much at the movie last night. Our laughing could be heard throughout the auditorium.

Do not accept misspellings.

- 8) Award 1 mark for all three correct answers.

We have a doorbell with musical chimes.

The girl grew up to be a famous musician.

The boy was musically talented.

Do not accept misspellings.

- 1) Award 1 mark for the correct words circled.

was were were

Do not accept the correct answer, together with other words circled.

- 2) Award 1 mark for the correct answer ticked.

The teachers were going to send a letter.

Do not accept an answer in which more than the required number of boxes have been ticked.

- 3) Award 1 mark for all three correct answers ticked.

Non-Standard English – I were going to show you my picture.

Non-Standard English – He doesn't know nothing about cricket.

Standard English – I have done all of my homework.

Do not accept an answer in which more than the required number of boxes have been ticked.

- 4) Award 1 mark for the correct answer ticked.

our

Do not accept an answer in which more than the required number of boxes have been ticked.

- 5) Award 1 mark for a grammatically correct and accurately punctuated sentence using Standard English.

Len said he hasn't got any copies of the book to lend to me.

Do not accept misspellings or other sentences that use different words.

- 6) Award 1 mark for the correct answer ticked.

I wanted a cake but the shop didn't have none.

Do not accept an answer in which more than the required number of boxes have been ticked.

- 7) Award 1 mark for the correct words circled.

those well did

Do not accept the correct answer, together with other words circled.

Pages 61–64 — Formal and Informal Vocabulary

- 1) Award 1 mark for all four correct answers matched.

pick – select wrong – incorrect away – absent seem – appear

Do not accept an answer that has multiple lines drawn to or from the same box.

- 2) Award 1 mark for the correct answer ticked.

I would be hesitant to agree with your proposal.

Do not accept an answer in which more than the required number of boxes have been ticked.

- 3) Award 1 mark for the correct words circled.

You are cordially invited to a grand celebration aboard the captain's most prestigious yacht. It is imperative that attendees wear suitable clothing.

Do not accept the correct answer, together with other words circled.

- 4) Award 1 mark for both correct insertions of an appropriate informal synonym.

I wish to talk/chat/catch-up/speak with your mother due to your naughty/bad/rude/unkind behaviour at school today.

There are no spelling requirements for this question.

- 5) Award 1 mark for a grammatically correct and accurately punctuated sentence using formal vocabulary.

Pupils' own responses, such as: I would be delighted to attend the cafe for a delicious luncheon./I would adore a visit to the local eatery for a scrumptious morsel to eat.

- 6) Award 1 mark for the correct words underlined.

The film is yet to be confirmed.

Do not accept the correct answer, together with other words underlined.

- 7) Award 1 mark for the correct answer ticked.

Your drawing looks much better.

Do not accept an answer in which more than the required number of boxes have been ticked.

Pages 65–68 — Vocabulary and Standard English Mixed Practice

- 1) Award 1 mark for the correct answer ticked.

We sang at the school's summer concert.

Do not accept an answer in which more than the required number of boxes have been ticked.

- 2) Award 1 mark for all four correct answers matched.

ordinary – unusual complex – simple brave – cowardly doubt – believe

Do not accept an answer that has multiple lines drawn to or from the same box.

- 3) Award 1 mark for the correct answer ticked.

Your attendance at the conference is requested.

Do not accept an answer in which more than the required number of boxes have been ticked.

- 4) Award 1 mark for the correct answer ticked.

give

Do not accept an answer in which more than the required number of boxes have been ticked.

- 5) Award 1 mark for the correct words underlined.

We enjoy reading your articles on gaming.

Do not accept the correct answer, together with other words underlined.

- 6) Award 1 mark for all three correct answers matched.

alphabet -ise simple -ify
fortune -ate

Do not accept an answer that has multiple lines drawn to or from the same box.

- 7) Award 1 mark for the correct words circled.

weary exhausted

Do not accept the correct answer, together with other words circled.

- 8) Award 1 mark for the correct answer.

The cake was a wonderful creation of sponge, cream and chocolate.

Do not accept misspellings.

- 9) Award 1 mark for the correct answer ticked.

measure

Do not accept an answer in which more than the required number of boxes have been ticked.

- 10) Award 1 mark for three correct answers.

glamorous

personal dramatic

Do not accept misspellings.

- 11) Award 1 mark for a response explaining that the workers did not get paid in the first sentence but they were paid something in the second sentence.

Pupils' own responses, such as:
The first sentence explains that the workers were not paid at all, whereas the second sentence explains that the workers were not paid enough.

Do not accept responses that do not explain specifically how the meaning has changed, e.g., it changes the pay.

There are no spelling or punctuation requirements for this question.

- 12) Award 1 mark for all four correct answers.

Non-Standard English – We was really late for school.

Standard English – Please pass me those books.

Non-Standard English – Can you learn me the rules please?

Standard English – We were there yesterday.

Do not accept an answer in which more than the required number of boxes have been ticked.

- 13) Award 1 mark for both correct answers.

Hari was the manager of the company but sometimes the amount of work he had to complete was unmanageable.

Do not accept misspellings.

- 14) Award 1 mark for three correct answers.

impossible
irresponsible injustice

Do not accept misspellings.

Page 71 — Mini Test One

- 1) Award 1 mark for a correctly placed comma.

After eating a carrot, Wendy the rabbit often falls asleep.

- 2) Award 1 mark for the correct answer ticked.

I like to watch the numbers change.

Do not accept an answer in which more than the required number of boxes have been ticked.

- 3) Award 1 mark for the correct words circled.

warm
cool

Do not accept the correct answer, together with other words circled.

- 4) Award 1 mark for a grammatically correct and accurately punctuated sentence that uses walk as a noun.

Pupils' own responses, such as: Last weekend, I took my dog for a walk.

- 5) Award 1 mark for the correct word circled.

buy

Do not accept the correct answer, together with other words circled.

Page 72 — Mini Test Two

- 1) Award 1 mark for the correct insertion of an appropriate relative pronoun.

The sheep ran to the bale of hay which/that the farmer had dropped in the field.

Do not accept misspellings.

- 2) Award 1 mark for the correct word circled.

would

Do not accept the correct answer, together with other words circled.

- 3) Award 1 mark for the correct answer ticked.

When we played skittles, everyone was impressed by Erika's bowling.

Do not accept an answer in which more than the required number of boxes have been ticked.

- 4) Award 1 mark for the correct words circled.

well
did anything

Do not accept the correct answer, together with other words circled.

- 5) Award 1 mark for a correctly placed semi-colon.

The cow shook its head from side to side; it was getting annoyed by the flies.

Page 73 — Mini Test Three

- 1) Award 1 mark for a correctly placed pair of brackets.

The longest river in the world is the Nile (6,650 kilometres) in Africa.

- 2) Award 1 mark for the correct answer ticked: a hyphen placed between the words 'long' and 'term'.

long-term

- Do not accept an answer in which more than the required number of boxes have been ticked.

- 3) Award 1 mark for the correct answer ticked.

determiners

Do not accept an answer in which more than the required number of boxes have been ticked.

- 4) Award 1 mark for the correct insertion of an appropriate subordinating conjunction.

The children sat outside while/whilst/when they completed their homework.

Do not accept misspellings.

- 5) Award 1 mark for a grammatically correct and accurately punctuated sentence that uses direct speech.

Pupils' own responses, such as: I asked, "Do you want the last cake?"

Page 74 — Mini Test Four

- 1) Award 1 mark for the correct words circled.

gnarled powerful unrelenting

Do not accept the correct answer, together with other words circled.

- 2) Award 1 mark for the correct answer ticked.

What colour was the missing cat

Do not accept an answer in which more than the required number of boxes have been ticked.

- 3) Award 1 mark for a correctly punctuated sentence using the passive voice.

Pupils' own responses, such as: The banana was peeled by Amena.

Also accept: The banana was peeled.

- 4) Award 1 mark for capital letters and full stops correctly inserted.

Mateo has always enjoyed cooking and hopes to be a famous chef one day. He has read many different receipt books from all over the world. Fresh basil is his favourite ingredient to cook with.

Do not accept the correct answers, together with other words not punctuated correctly.

- 5) Award 1 mark for the correct words circled.

before across towards

Do not accept the correct answer, together with other words circled.

