

Reception Class Weekly Newsletter

Friday 12th December 2025

This week...

- ✓ Thank you to all the amazing tree decorations! They look fantastic on our rainbow Christmas tree! Keep them coming in!
- ✓ We continued our art work with clay and made some fantastic gingerbread man sculptures! We used techniques of rolling, pressing, forming and embossing to create our characters and they look fantastic!
- ✓ And finally, after more videos emerged...
WE FOUND THE GINGERBREAD MAN! We followed rhyming clues to find him and reunited him with his best friend Jingles the elf.
- ✓ He brought us a lovely treat to enjoy for being AMAZING in our Gingerbread Man performance. We also won a headteachers award from Mr Wright! Well done everyone and a big Thankyou to all the families who joined us.
- ✓ In English we have been writing simple sentences about the Gingerbread man, using our phonic knowledge to spell words. Mrs Owen was very impressed!

Next week...

- We will be doing lots of Christmas themed crafts and activities.
- Christmas party day Tuesday 16th. Children to come in their party clothes, we will have our party in the afternoon.
- Christmas dinner day is Weds 17th
- Church carol service 9:15 Friday 19th Dec. Some children will be in the nativity story - your child will have a letter in their bag if they have a part. All welcome to come and watch the service.

Jobs for the weekend!

Share your phonics reading book Adults need to sign yellow reading diaries to show when children have read at home. Many Thanks!

Reminders and other info

- Please add names in ALL items of clothing.
- Book bags need to be brought daily.
- Please inform the team if your child has or has had any infectious condition such as hand foot and mouth, impetigo, worms or headlice. We need to stay vigilant to stop the spread of these nasty bugs, the sooner we know the better,

Have a wonderful weekend!
