

The Good Samaritan (Short Version)

Based on Luke 10:30–37

A man was walking along the road when he was hurt by robbers.
They took his things and left him lying on the ground.

Soon, a man walked by but did not stop to help.
Another person passed by and also kept walking.

Then a Samaritan came along. Even though the hurt man was a stranger, the Samaritan stopped. He was kind.
He cleaned the man's wounds, helped him onto his animal,
and took him to a safe place to rest.

The Samaritan showed love and respect by helping someone in need.
