

Science Fridge Words

Reflect

When light hits a surface, it bounces off in another direction which is known as reflection.

Source

A light source is something which produces light.

Direction

Where something is going or where it's located compared to something else.

Construct

To build or make something.

History Fridge Words

Ancient Egyptians

A North African civilisation dating from around 3100 BC until the Roman conquest in the 4th century AD.

Mummification

The ancient Egyptian process of preserving a dead body to prepare for it for the afterlife involving steps to prevent decay.

Pyramids

Giant burial tombs for the most important people in their society, the Pharaohs.

Tourism

The act of travelling to different places for enjoyment, relaxation or to learn new cultures.

Settlements

Places where people live and work, often forming distinct communities.

Hieroglyphs

A type of writing which uses pictures and symbols instead of letters.

DT Fridge Words

Slicing

The action of cutting food into thin pieces or segments.

Boiling

When a liquid, like water, gets hot enough to turn into a gas to form bubbles.

Baking

Cooking food in an oven or an enclosed baking vessel.

Serving

The amount of food or drink that is given to one person at a meal.