FOOTBALL TOURNAMENTS

This week, children from Year 6 were involved in the Rossendale Schools Football Tournament. They won their qualifier matches on Monday which progressed them to the final on Wednesday. Britannia finished 5th out of 6 teams; however, they were only 3 points off the top spot which showed how close the level of competition was. Everyone is extremely proud of their effort and teamwork.

On Thursday a group of girls from Year 5 and 6 took part in a fun football event aimed at developing skills, and introducing the possibility of playing for Haslingden Girls Football Club. They all showed wonderful effort and loved taking part in the activities offered. Should any girls be looking to get involved in football, Haslingden Girls Football Club offer free sessions at The Valley Leadership Academy on a Saturday morning.

CHARITY EVENT FOR PENDLESIDE HOSPICE

Help Coach Andy as he takes on Pendleside Does Strictly, stepping onto the dance floor to raise as much money as possible for this incredible local charity.
