Family Wellbeing Morning – Supporting Our Pinehurst Families

We are delighted to invite families to our Family Wellbeing Morning on Thursday 22nd October, from 9.15am–11.00am, in the school hall.

The morning will be hosted by Ms Wigelsworth, with our Family Support Worker, Miss Collins, also in attendance. It is a welcoming opportunity for parents and carers to come along, enjoy a cuppa and some cake, meet other families and find out about the support available within our local community.

Our Family Wellbeing Morning brings together a range of services and organisations that can offer advice, guidance and practical support for you, your children and your family. Previous sessions have included support and advice from:

Local Councillor, Billy Marratt Health and Wellbeing Support Services
Plus Dane and Torus – housing support and advice Local Children's Centre
Free Legal Advice – Family Law Food Pantry
Education Welfare Partner Services – attendance advice and support

Whether you have a question you would like some help with, would like to find out more about local services, or simply want to come along for a chat and a cuppa, you are very welcome.

Our Family Wellbeing Morning is all about creating a friendly, supportive space where families can access help, share experiences and connect with others.

Please come along – we would love to see you!

Important Reminder...

If your child has medical needs it is important to keep school updated.

If they have are prescribed an inhaler, a second prescription should be obtained so that one can remain in school with a spacer.

It is important that this is replaced periodically so that the medication remains within it's expiry date.

If your child requires other medication it is essential that parents / carers attend the school office and complete the relevant paperwork in order for this to be administered.

Thank you for your support.
