BUILDING RESILIENCE, AMBITION AND RESPECT

Get to know your rights!
5. Celebrate rights, not rewards.

Instead of saying, "You've earned that because you were good," try, "You're showing respect for others' rights." This reinforces values like equality, dignity and respect – the foundation of a Rights Respecting School.

Nurture Principles – tip of the week:
(The importance of transition in children's lives)
Prepare your child for changes big or small – a new school, routine or even a change of plans. Talk it through, show pictures, visit if possible and celebrate their courage in trying something new.

Our news...

It has been such a busy week in school and we have loved welcoming you in for our Christmas performances. Thank you for supporting your children and thank you to the staff and children for working so hard to put them together.

Christmas dinner day was enjoyed by all with the kitchen staff putting on an incredible spread. The children were very excited to receive a visit from Father Christmas!

AJ Bell came to school on Monday to meet children and donate some much needed laptops. Thank you for visiting and thank you to Samantha, Sienna, Noah, Oliver and Abeeha for your help.

Our attendance focus is coming to school on time for 8:35am. Attendance last week was 90.4% which is small improvement. Well done to Dwayne (KS2), Scarlet (KS1) and Lydia (EYFS) who won the attendance drive prize draw this week

The class with best attendance was 6B and most improved attendance goes to RA – well done!

Good attendance is 96% – let's work together to reach this target!

Well done to everyone who entered the bauble competition – the entries were amazing this year! Congratulations to Violet, Sofia and Eliza for making the winning baubles. Here they are with their prizes awarded in assembly today.

This week's topic- My child doesn't want to go to school

It's natural for children to not want to go to school from time to time. For example, they might be worried about a test or about a problem with a friend. With support, many children attend regularly, but sometimes anxiety can grow to the point where they avoid school altogether.
