

HAVELEY HEY COMMUNITY SCHOOL

BUILDING RESILIENCE, AMBITION AND RESPECT

Get to know your rights!
Encourage responsibility alongside rights

Remind your child that enjoying their rights also means respecting the rights of others – for example, everyone has the right to learn, so we help by listening and taking turns.

Nurture Principles – tip of the week

(The classroom – or home – offers a safe base)

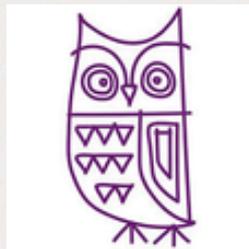

Create a 'calm corner' at home – a cosy space with a soft toy, blanket or book where your child can go to feel safe and settle their emotions.

Our news...

We started the week with an assembly about World Religion Day which links to Article 14 – Children can choose their own thoughts, opinions and religion
The children then completed work in class where they explored stories from different faiths and cultures and completed art work based on these stories.

We also had a visit from the Maths Hub this week who we are working with this year to further develop our maths provision across school. Children will now be completing an additional Mastering Number session each day to build strong number sense and fluency which helps children with their mathematical automaticity.

Many children go through phases where bedtime becomes a real challenge. Sometimes their minds are busy, sometimes they feel unsettled, and sometimes it's simply hard for them to switch off after a long day. The Parenting Smart article explores some of the common reasons children struggle with sleep and offers gentle guidance to help families understand what might be going on at bedtime.
