SCHOOL BLOG

This week, literacy has been firmly in the spotlight across school. A huge thank you to all our parents, grandparents and family members who joined us for our Macmillan Reading Morning. It was wonderful to see children sharing and enjoying books with mums, dads, grandmas and grandads, whilst also supporting such a fantastic charity. Parents in EYFS and Year 1 have also attended our phonics meetings, where teachers explored our phonics curriculum and shared practical ways to support learning at home. We know that children who are regularly read to at home benefit enormously from this valuable experience. Mrs Flanagan has also launched PageTicker, and we would like to thank everyone who has been recording their child's reading, allowing us to celebrate the fantastic progress being made week by week. Finally, our popular Sticky Questions are back. Every Friday, children will bring home a thought-provoking question designed to spark conversation, build confidence and develop their oracy skills. We hope you enjoy exploring these together as a family!
