SCHOOL BLOG

Welcome back to the second half of our Autumn term!

This week has been incredibly special at Town Field as we officially launched OPAL (Outdoor Play and Learning). Children have enthusiastically explored our forest area, created and built their own models, enjoyed the mud kitchen, engaged in imaginative small world play and developed their skills on the scooters. We have also hosted our first Careers Week of the year, which has been a fantastic success. A huge thank you to all our parents, volunteers and partners who generously gave their time to speak with the children. Through these inspiring sessions, children have learned about setting up small businesses, apprenticeship pathways, careers in finance, the work of authors and illustrators, and a range of creative professions. These experiences are helping our children broaden their aspirations and understand the many exciting opportunities that lie ahead as we continue learning how to fly together.

What an Exciting Start!

This week we officially launched Phase 1 of our OPAL Play programme, and what a fantastic start it has been! It is safe to say that it has been a huge hit with the children, who have embraced the new opportunities with endless enthusiasm, imagination and creativity.

Our playground has been transformed into a world of adventure, with princesses making an appearance, some fantastic den-building taking place, wonderful LEGO creations coming to life and, perhaps most excitingly, the children are currently working on their very own project – 'Digging to China!' We can't wait to see where their imaginations take them next!

It has been wonderful to see the children exploring, experimenting, working together and, most importantly, having so much fun!

Once again, we would like to say a huge thank you to all our families for your incredible support and generous donations. Your contributions have helped us get OPAL Play off to such an amazing start, and we couldn't have done it without you.

This is just the beginning – there are plenty more adventures, discoveries and exciting play opportunities to come!
