

Spellingframe

1. The back garden, under a blanket of snow, was like a from a Christmas card.
2. A thin autumnal shrouded the wooded slopes above the town.
3. Mark stuck pictures on a to show what was for sale on the toy stand.
4. Some significant facts had been out of the final report.
5. Sharon had been warned several times not to with things that didn't concern her.
6. It remains to be if there will be any lasting effects from the oil spillage.
7. Sophia was feeling so she decided to go out in the garden and play football.
8. Lewis was awarded a gold for his outstanding performance in the 100 meters
9. " I don't know one is mine," complained Tom, " none of them have names on."
10. The was wearing a shiny, black cloak and a tall hat.

medal - board - which - seen - meddle - scene - mist - bored - witch - missed