Childhood – Then and Now

History Knowledge Organiser: Key Objective: Changes within living memory.

I already know...

In the past people lived differently- e.g. Medieval times

Vocabulary

Toy - an object used for play, especially by children.

Craze - a short-lived trend.

House - a building for a single family or small group of people to live in.

Childhood - the period of a person's life between infancy and adolescence.

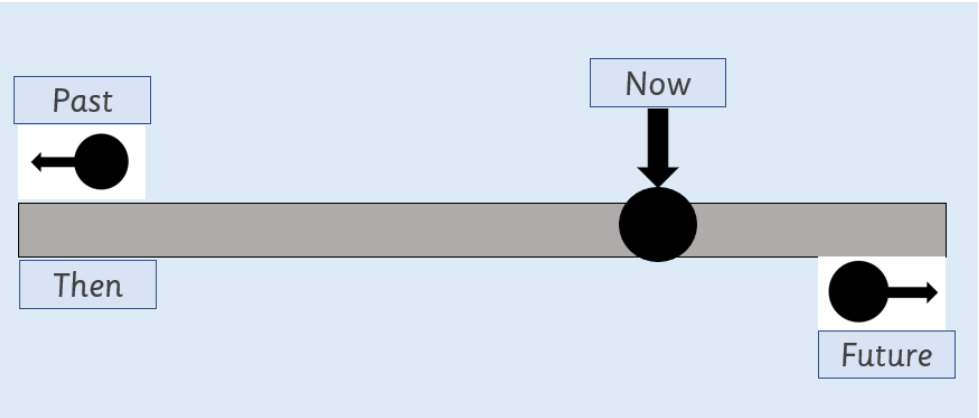

Modern - something relating to the present or recent times.

Entertainment - an event, performance, or activity designed to entertain others.

Key Knowledge

- The rocking horse was a Victorian toy.
- A detached house is not connected to other houses.
- Schools were much stricter in the past.
- Children's clothes in the past were different to my own.
- I know how forms of entertainment for children have changed over time.

Timeline

Key people

- Parents
- Grandparents
- Aunties
- Uncles

Questions to ask

- What was life like for Victorian children?
- How have children's homes, schools and clothes changed over time?
- How have children's toys and entertainment changed from the Victorian era to today?

Sources

https://www.bbc.co.uk/teach/class-clips-video/articles/ztb2m39

https://www.bbc.co.uk/teach/class-clips-video/articles/zm7wpg8

https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/articles/zrsw4xs